Schiller Instituttet har udsendt følgende internationale resolution, til underskriftsindsamling:

I nutidens atomvåbenalder kan konsekvensen af en geopolitisk konfrontation med Rusland og Kina kun blive den menneskelige arts udslettelse gennem atomkrig.

BRIKS-nationerne (Brasilien, Rusland, Indien, Kina og Sydafrika) er gået i forening for at forfølge en politik med økonomisk udvikling ikke blot for deres egne nationer, men til gavn for befolkningerne i alle nationer. Med dette formål for øje har de skabt en Ny Udviklingsbank til at investere milliarder i nødvendige udviklingsprojekter.

Kina har for nylig taget de første skridt til den Asiatiske Infrastruktur-Investeringsbank, som flere end 20 asiatiske nationer har tilsluttet sig som stiftende medlemmer, og Kina har ligeledes oprettet en Silkevejs-udviklingsfond.

På APEC-konferencen i Beijing inviterede den kinesiske præsident Xi Jinping den amerikanske præsident Obama til at gå med i Kinas og andre asiatiske nationers, inklusive Ruslands, indsats for at udvikle den Nye Silkevej.

Disse initiativer er ikke geopolitiske i deres natur. I modsætning til frihandelsaftalen Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP), som Obama er fortaler for, og som ekskluderer Kina, så er de BRIKS-relaterede initiativer, inklusive det kinesiske forslag til det Asiatiske Stillehavsområdes Frihandelsaftale (FTAAP), inkluderende. De er baseret på den idé, som afdøde Pave Paul VI udtrykte som, at »det nye navn for fred er udvikling«. På det nyligt afholdte G20-topmøde i Australien talte både Xi Jinping og den indiske premierminister Modi således begge om det dobbelte formål, at opnå global fred og bringe en afslutning på fattigdom gennem økonomisk udvikling.

Der er intet problem i verden, der ikke kan løses gennem en sådan tilgang, og modsat vil intet problem blive løst uden.

Et sådant samarbejde mellem USA, Rusland, Kina og Indien, blandt andre nationer, er nødvendigt for at besejre Ebola-pandemien i Afrika.

Den terrortrussel, der repræsenteres af ISIS og al-Qaeda, har i lige grad som sit mål Rusland, Kina og Indien, såvel som også USA og Europa. Den kan kun overvindes gennem en ny sikkerhedsarkitektur baseret på samarbejde.

Politikken med at gennemføre »farvede revolutioner« under påskud af demokrati repræsenterer, selv om dette begreb ikke nævnes, en krigspolitik, fordi det har til formål at vælte regeringer ved hjælp af penge fra udlandet. Det må stoppe. Kampagnen for at påtvinge Rusland sanktioner på grund af landets opposition mod sådanne »farvede revolutioner« og det nazistiske kup i Ukraine forværrer blot den globale krise. En fremgangsmåde, baseret på gensidigt samarbejde for at opnå menneskehedens fælles mål over hele Eurasien og videre endnu, ville i stedet skabe grundlaget for global fred.

Alt imens USA har forladt Kennedys rumprogram, så har kineserne forpligtet sig over for et måneprogram med fokus på udvinding af helium-3 med det formål at skabe ubegrænset fusionsenergi. Med et samarbejde mellem USA, Europa, Rusland, Kina og Indien, blandt andre nationer, ville mennesket endelig kunne virkeliggøre Johannes Keplers vision om at beherske solsystemets love, til gavn for mennesket.

Udelukkende kun en sådan tilgang ville bringe USA og Europa tilbage til deres oprindelige formål, som det kommer til udtryk i den Europæiske Renæssance og den Amerikanske Revolution, et formål, som USA og Europa i stigende grad har forladt, og som resten af verden nu har vedtaget og nu indtrængende opfordrer dem til atter at vedtage.

Vi opfordrer derfor USA og Europa til at forlade fortidens geopolitiske selvmordspolitik, som førte til de to forrige verdenskrige og er i færd med at føre til den tredje, og i stedet opbygge en fremtid for hele menneskeheden gennem atter at vedtage Den westfalske Freds princip, gennem at basere udenrigspolitik på princippet om »den andens fordel«, som gjorde en ende på trediveårskrigen i Europa, samt på John Quincy Adams' idé om »et samfund baseret på principper mellem suveræne nationalstater«.

Dette er det eneste handlingsforløb, som er i overensstemmelse med menneskets sande natur som den eneste, kreative art. Ethvert andet handlingsforløb er baseret på idéen om, at mennesket er et dyr, og vil føre til menneskets udslettelse.

Som patrioter i vore egne nationer, og som verdensborgere, opfordrer vi vore medborgere og vore nationers ledere til at have det fornødne mod til at bryde den aktuelle cyklus med en optrapning af bestialiteter, gennem at tage imod det generøse tilbud om at samarbejde med BRIKS.
