

Nedtælling 45 dage! En mobilisering for LaRouches Fire Love som emnet for Trumps 'State of the Union'! LaRouche PAC Internationale Webcast, 15. dec., 2017.

Vært Matthew Ogden: I mandags indledte vi vores nedtælling på 50 dage (se mandags-opdatering her); 50 dage til præsident Trump holder sin State of the Union tale (Tale om nationens tilstand), der er planlagt til den 30. januar, 2018. Vi er nu fem dage inde i denne nedtælling, så vi har 45 dage tilbage til State of the Union-talen. Lyndon LaRouches og LaRouche PAC's erklærede hensigt er at sikre, at kernebudskabet i denne State of the Union-tale handler om det økonomiske program, der er nødvendigt for at genoplive den amerikanske økonomi for at bringe USA ind i det nye paradigme, som det er blevet initieret af Kina. Indholdet af dette program er selvfølgelig indeholdt i de fire økonomiske love i Hamiltons tradition, som Lyndon LaRouche har forfattet, og som er blevet cirkuleret vidt omkring af medlemmer af LaRouche Political Action Committee og aktivister her i USA. Dette vil vi gennemgå i detaljer.

Et hurtigt overblik; dette omfatter: en genindførelse af Glass-Steagall; en tilbagevenden til et nationalbanksystem i Hamiltons tradition; anvendelsen af den føderale regerings kreditskabende mekanisme til omgående at øge den amerikanske arbejdsstyrkes produktive evne og til at genopbygge infrastrukturen og det nødvendige, næste stadium af den amerikanske økonomis platform; og den indeholdte faktor i alt dette – et nationalt, forceret program for rumforskning og fusionskraft. Det er den videnskabsmotor, som er det lim, der holder hele programmet sammen.

Vi vil senere annoncere og vi har nogle billeder, men en ny brochure, der indeholder dette program, vil blive cirkuleret i begyndelsen af næste uge. Dette bliver det kernemateriale, I har brug for, for at hjælpe os med at mobilisere de tilbageværende dage af nedtællingen på 50 dage. Jeg sætter dette på skærmen.

Dette er et smugkig af forsiden af den kommende brochure, som bliver udgivet i begyndelsen af næste uge. Her ser man, at titlen er »Lyndon LaRouches Fire Love – De fysisk-økonomiske principper for USA's genrejsning; Amerikas fremtid på den Nye Silkevej«. Og på bagsiden ser man et fint billede af Verdenslandbroen. Dette er det udviklingsprogram, som vil blive forlængelsen af den Nye Silkevej; og dernæst opregnes LaRouches Fire Love. Dette bliver selvfølgelig et meget afgørende materiale for os at cirkulere i den kommende periode.

Det andet, som selvfølgelig meget hurtigt er ved at udvikle sig i løbet af denne 50-dages nedtælling, er en komplet kovending af dette kupforsøg mod det amerikanske præsidentskab, som er blevet kørt med baggrund i det såkaldte »Russiagate«-hysteri. Dette svindelnummer er blevet brugt som en kølle i et forsøg på at bringe dette præsidentskab til fald og forsøge at drive en kile ind mellem ethvert nyttigt og potentielt produktivt samarbejde mellem USA og Rusland. Vi ser nu også, at dette udvides til at forsøge at drive en kile ind mellem USA og Kina. Her er tingene vendt rundt og har givet bagslag mod dem, der har kørt dette kupforsøg, ved at komme frem i dagens lys og er meget dramatisk. Vi har set afsløringen af hele spindet af korrupsion hos det personel, der var involveret i denne såkaldte efterforskning, og det er blevet klart, at, endnu før Donald Trump var blevet indsat, eller blot valgt, var der en kernegruppe af disse folk, der havde gjort det til deres egen, personlige mission at gøre alt, de kunne – inklusive at arbejde internt fra den amerikanske regerings institutioner – for at forsøge at bringe dette præsidentskab til fald. Dette er blevet afsløret på forskellig vis. Som I får at høre Helga Zepp-LaRouche sige i et kort uddrag fra Schiller Institut-webcastet fra i går, sagde hun, med sine egne ord, at »anklagerne er blevet de anklagede«. Dette åbner op for en helt ny, strategisk dimension.

Jeg vil nu afspille et kort uddrag af Helga Zepp-LaRouches bemærkninger i går i hendes internationale webcast:

(Hele Helgas webcast på dansk her)

Her følger resten af fredags-webcastet i engelsk udskrift:

HELGA ZEPP-LAROUCHE: This is very fascinating because exactly the opposite of what was the intention is now happening; namely that those people who tried to prove collusion between Trump and the Russian government are now the target of a potential investigation themselves, with quite incredible implications. There are already calls out that all of these people – from Mueller, McCabe, Bruce Ohr, Peter Strzok, and various other individuals – that they should all be led away in handcuffs. This is the demand of a former judge and state attorney, Jeanine Pirro, on Fox TV, and what she referred to is the fact that now it is becoming very clear in the hearings in the House of Representatives and in the Senate that there was collusion of people who were absolutely a taskforce against Trump even before he was elected, who wanted to have sort of a life insurance against the possibility that Trump may be elected. They worked together with the "former" MI-6 agent Christopher Steele on this dirty dossier. Now it turns out that the degree of corruption is even much more deep. For example, the wife of the recently laid-off Associate Deputy Attorney General, Bruce Ohr, worked for the very firm which was dealing with Christopher Steele on behalf of the Obama administration and the Clinton election team; namely, Fusion GPS. So, there is very clearly a conflict of interest to say the least, and what happened in the hearing was basically, the situation became so hot that McCabe at the last moment discovered a so-called conflict of his agenda, and he didn't appear. Congressman Nunes immediately said he does not believe that for a second, because obviously it was incredible. The cover-up is not functioning anymore, because the questions were asked to these individuals that they should have brought this information on their own; if there was an investigation against the President, they should have prepared the material as evidence and not covered it up. So, I think this is turning the whole situation around. "Russia-gate" is crumbling, and this has incredible strategic implications, because this whole thing, if we recall how this developed, was all intended from the very beginning by the Obama administration and the leftovers from the previous Bush administration to prevent President Trump from developing a positive relationship with Russia.

OGDEN: This is excerpt from Helga Zepp-LaRouche's remarks yesterday on her international Schiller Institute webcast. As you just heard her conclude there, this whole thing is turning on its head. The accusers have become the accused; and she said that this whole "Russia-gate" hoax is crumbling. This has enormous strategic implications. Obviously, as she was just in the middle of saying, the purpose of this was to drive a wedge between any potentially useful collaboration between the United States and Russia; and then also by extension, the United States and China. But this entire thing really now has crumbled in just the last 48 hours; and it's moving very quickly as a result of the probes from various Congressional committees move ahead. The most telling are the text messages that were published between Peter Strzok, who was a agent on the Mueller investigation, and his would-be mistress, Lisa Page; who were texting back and forth during the entirety of the campaign and then even after the election, leading up into the inauguration. I would just like to read some of the content of these text messages that have been released to the public. It will show you that this is just symptomatic of, as Helga Zepp-LaRouche called it, a taskforce which really was put together inside the institutions of the FBI and the Justice Department; that were planning and plotting how to bring down President Trump after he was inaugurated. So, here's some of the contents of the text messages. You'll see that not only did they have it out for Donald Trump, they had it out for Bernie Sanders, Martin O'Malley, and John Kasich.

These were Clinton partisans; and I think this really goes to the point that there is a stay-behind apparatus inside these institutions that really were doing everything they could from {inside} of the institutions to get Clinton elected. Talk about a rigged system!

And then once she lost the election, they've been trying to do everything they can to bring down President Trump. So, here are some quotes.

Lisa Page said in a text message, "I just saw my first Bernie Sanders bumper sticker. Made me want to key the car."

this is from August of 2015. What was Strzok's reply? "He's an idiot like Trump. Figure they cancel each other out." Later, Lisa Page said about Donald Trump, "What an utter idiot!" She went on to say in another text message, "God! Trump is a loathsome human! OMG! He's an idiot!" Strzok replied, "He's awful." Strzok wrote to Lisa Page in March of 2016, "God!
Hillary should win 100 million to zero!" He identified himself as a conservative Democrat, apparently. Then here are two of maybe the most telling text messages, that really get at the heart of what the personnel in this so-called "investigation" have really been up to. Lisa Page wrote to Peter Strzok, "Maybe you're meant to stay where you are, because you're meant to protect the country from that menace," she said, referring to Donald Trump. And Peter Strzok replied, "I can protect our country at many levels." Then later, here's another text, and this is perhaps the most intriguing. Peter Strzok wrote to Lisa Page, "I want to believe the path you threw out for consideration in Andy's office" – referring to Andrew McCabe, the Deputy Director. He said, "There's no way he", referring to Trump, "gets elected. But I'm afraid we can't take that risk." So, what were they plotting in Andrew McCabe's office? And then later on, shortly after the election, Lisa Page wrote to Peter Strzok, "Just bought {All the President's Men}. Figure I needed to brush up on Watergate." Of course, {All the President's Men} is the famous book about how Richard Nixon was brought down through the Watergate scandals. So, this shows that shortly after the election, these two Federal employees were discussing how Trump might be brought down by this sort of scandal. So, there you have it – "Russia-gate".

As Helga Zepp-LaRouche said, this entire thing is falling apart. That's just one small sliver of the story. There are entire other aspects of these conflicts of interest and the fact that Mueller did stack his team with people who were known partisans, and who had very clear conflicts of interest. This entire thing is now turning on its head. As Helga Zepp-LaRouche said, this has enormous strategic implications.

Indeed, we see the potential again for a relationship between the United States and Russia moving forward just today.

As we heard news reports, yesterday President Trump initiated a call to President Putin, where they discussed several things, as President Trump said while he was on the south lawn of the White House this morning, getting on the helicopter to go down to Quantico. He said, President Putin talked about some of the positive things that have been accomplished here in the United States during the past year of President Trump's Presidency. They also talked about some of the conflicts that the US and Russia have abroad. But most of all, the subject matter of that phone call last night was discussing how to resolve the Korea crisis; North Korea specifically. As we know, President Trump has worked very closely with President Xi Jinping of China to try to address this hotspot. But he has repeatedly said, if we could get along with Russia, that would be a good thing, not a bad thing; because that would enable us to resolve some of these hotspots around the world, including North Korea. So, hopefully we'll see some progress as we move forward with that. We obviously know that that's a major aspect of the discussion at the United Nations Security Council today with Secretary Tillerson.

President Trump also said, during this interaction with reporters this morning when he was getting on the helicopter, he said this Russia scandal has been a fraud from day one, and everybody knows it. He said there is no collusion. He said, even my worst enemies come out of these committee hearings and declare "Yes, that's true. There's no evidence of collusion yet, but we'll just keep going and we're sure to dig up something." But President Trump said, the point is, {there is no collusion}.

Let's now get back to the business of running this country and dealing with the problems that we have before us here in the United States.

So, I think that gets directly back to the point. We have a 45-day countdown now between now and President Trump's State of the Union. Our mission, as LaRouche PAC and the LaRouche movement, is to ensure that the central core theme of that State of the Union is “How are we going to revive the economy of the United States, and how are we going to join this New Paradigm of ‘win-win’ development that’s been initiated by China?” That is by no means a long shot, especially if you – as we did on Monday – take a survey back on some of the positions that this President has taken on some of the core themes of that Four Laws economic program. Glass-Steagall – he espoused it during the campaign. It’s been twisted and undermined by Steve Mnuchin and others, but this is still a stated part of President Trump’s agenda. $1 trillion for infrastructure; we know that that was the core theme of his joint address to the Congress last February, and he’s come back to it several times. In what form it’s not clear; but that immediately must be mobilized. The way that it can be mobilized is through a Hamiltonian national bank or a national infrastructure bank similar to the way that Franklin Roosevelt did it during the New Deal. He also talked about restoring the skills and the employment of the forgotten man; especially in the formerly industrial Midwest and heartland of the United States. Absolutely! This is an entire layer of the population that needs immediate relief, but also needs immediate productive jobs on the cutting edge kinds of technologies that can be mobilized through a crash program for space and for ultimately the achievement of fusion power. We took a large step forward, so to speak, a giant leap in the direction of bringing mankind back to the Moon this last Monday afternoon, with President Trump's signing of the Space Policy Directive #1. The speech that he made upon that signing, was a very inspiring speech. He said we intend to bring Americans back to the Moon, not just to put our footsteps on the surface of the Moon and plant a flag; but to set up more permanent research and settlement capabilities there, and then ultimately to use that as a launching pad to send men to Mars and ultimately beyond. So obviously, that was the 45th anniversary of the Apollo 17 landing on the lunar surface; which was the last manned Moon landing that we've had in 45 years.

We had the opportunity last night to hear from Kesha Rogers on the Fireside Chat. And many of you maybe got to participate in this, but Kesha Rogers is a declared candidate – and I can put her image up here [Fig. 3]. An independent candidate for Congress, for the US House of Representatives in the 9th Congressional District of Texas for the upcoming 2018

Congressional elections. And as Kesha Rogers pointed out in her talk last night, in her entire lifetime – she's 41 years old – we have not had a man or a woman land on the surface of the Moon.

Our entire lifetimes, and now we're talking about the entire lifetimes of another generation who are now reaching adulthood; those students in college and those who are graduating high school, their entire lifetimes have passed up to this point without human beings returning to the surface of the Moon.

This is a tragedy and this is an utter travesty when we look at the legacy of what John F Kennedy and those original Apollo astronauts intended when they were laying the groundwork for what was going to be permanent settlements on the Moon and manned missions beyond. That was derailed with John F Kennedy's assassination, and we as a nation have fallen far behind where we were even then with the failure to follow through on those amazing breakthroughs.

So, this is one of things that has obviously inspired Kesha Rogers in her declaration for candidacy in the Texas 9th District

US House of Representatives campaign. But she also, in this talk, called on others to join her; to take this kind of leadership that her campaign will be the flagship for the leadership required. But that others must join with her to take the leadership to make this vision a reality. She in no uncertain terms, made it very clear that in order to make this vision into an actuality, we needed to make a breakthrough in the next 45 days on securing Lyndon LaRouche's Four Economic Laws as the core law of the land when we're talking about the agenda for this Presidency.

So, what I'd like to do for you is actually just play a few short excerpts from Kesha Rogers' opening remarks during that Fireside Chat call last night, just so you can hear this kind of authoritative voice of leadership in her own voice.

KESHA ROGERS: I will just start by making clear for many people who have already heard and those who may be new on the line who haven't heard or may not be familiar with my campaign. I have just recently, as Dennis stated, filed a statement of intent here in Texas to run as an independent for the US House of Representatives in Congressional District 9 in Texas. That is the seat that current Congress member Al Green holds. Now I'm going to be petitioning for a position on the November 2018 ballot as an independent following the March primary elections here in Texas.

I wanted to start just with that, from the standpoint of first of all, to give you a little bit of background about my qualifications, my work with Mr. LaRouche over the past now nearly 15 years. I have run Congressional campaigns going back to 2010, when I ran my first campaign and secured the Democratic Party nomination and also again in 2012 securing the Democratic Party nomination. Leading the charge and calling out front to end and destructive policies against our nation by President Obama. Calling for Obama's impeachment during those periods; particularly for his continued criminal actions against our country, including his commitment to war policy, regime-change, his Tuesday kill list, and most emphatically – which we'll get into more – the destruction of our national space program with the brutal cuts to the Constellation program and the destruction of our Moon return program that was set into motion by the Constellation.

But what we saw during the Obama administration was an outright commitment to defending the interests of Wall Street. This is what my campaign and many of my colleagues on the national slate that I ran with as LaRouche candidates on a national slate, acted immediately to reject this policy of Wall Street looting of our national economy and to call for the shutting down of Wall Street and a restoring of Glass-Steagall banking reorganization. So, it's important to understand that history right now, because this is what actually garnered a great success with my campaigns here in Texas, despite the fact that there was a real backlash from the national and local Democrat Party. As I said, the victory came about when people in not only in the district, in the state, supported my campaign calling for a return to a national mission. A visionary perspective as outlined by President John F Kennedy and also President Franklin Roosevelt, which has been the commitment of Lyndon LaRouche and his economic policies for many decades now. Many people responded to that call of leadership and recognized that our campaign actually offered solutions.

This is what is absolutely required today. What I'm hoping to see is that more people take it upon yourselves to actually launch into this fight, to run political campaigns yourself.

What we need right now is we need a form of leadership emerging throughout the country of people all over the nation. This is not a matter of party politics; this is a matter of who will commit to a restoring of a national mission for the country.

I think it's very important right now to recognize that we're not talking about what's going to be needed for almost a year from now in a November election. But what is required immediately, and what must be implemented at this present time to save our nation, to save the US economy, to turn around the decades-long physical economic collapse that we've seen in the country. We're at a very unique opportunity to be able to do that. It's going to require the educational process of the American people; it's going to require a number of you and others stepping up to the plate to provide the leadership that's needed. I think it really is going to require a new commitment and understanding of what the idea of a national mission really should constitute. Mr. LaRouche the model, the mobilization of my campaigns has been the direct influence of the work that Lyndon LaRouche has been involved in for many years now. The national mission orientation and a science driver crash program for restoring the productivity of our nation. So, I think that is the fight at hand right now. As we look at the rapid shift toward development in the world at the present time, you see what's happening in terms of a commitment by nations that are joining with China in the Belt and Road Initiative. The direction for a national mission for our country isn't just for the benefit of the United States itself, but the world is looking right now towards a unified global paradigm. Which is a paradigm shaped around the idea that an international commitment to collaboration, to ending poverty, to ending the threat of war, to ending hunger, to ending in the United States and elsewhere the rapid increase of drug abuse, and the collapse of physical infrastructure. This has to be our commitment; not just to our own nation, but to that in collaborations around the world. The best way to define, to actually secure the victory of accomplishing those goals, is through a commitment to a national driver which is our commitment to reviving our national space program.

So, that's what has been my number one priority, is continuing to campaign even in off-campaign seasons and continue to be very present in the space community and the scientific community. This is what we have a very important obligation to see through. So, I think we are in a very unique position to respond to this demand of leadership. I take on that challenge willingly, and I am looking for people to join me and take on that challenge as I do, and to make sure that we can move the country in the needed direction in the next 50 days now. Get the President to immediately adopt these policies of an economic recovery program that's been defined by Lyndon LaRouche in his Four Economic Laws.

OGDEN: So there you heard. These were the opening remarks from Kesha Rogers during the Fireside Chat last night. You can listen to the entire dialogue on the LaRouche PAC website if you missed it, but her remarks there right at the conclusion; she said we have this 50-day countdown – now 45 days – to secure Lyndon LaRouche's Four Economic Laws as the policy of the Presidency of the United States. So, you can see here on the screen [Fig. 4], this is again the sneak peek to the cover of the LaRouche PAC pamphlet which will be coming out at the beginning of next week. "America's Future on the New Silk Road.

LaRouche's Four Laws – The Physical Economic Principles for the Recovery of the United States." And it says on the back there, these are LaRouche's Four Laws; and then we have a beautiful

of the World Land-Bridge as it was conceived originally by the LaRouche movement over 20 years ago. Now, this is actually coming into fruition. The core contents of this pamphlet are the text of the keynote speech that Helga Zepp-LaRouche made at the Bad Soden conference in Frankfurt, Germany about two weeks ago.

Where she goes through the entire vision of what was originally conceived of by Gottfried Leibniz as the Eurasian collaboration between European civilization and Chinese Confucian civilization, reaching across, bridging between those two great civilizations to bring development to the entirety of the Eurasian continent.

That was Leibniz's idea originally for what is now this New Silk Road that the Chinese have initiated. Now our mission is to extend that to include the entire world.

Also, we have Lyndon LaRouche's original document – "The Four Economic Laws" – reprinted in full in that pamphlet.

Then

we have four sections that break down those four economic laws and elaborate them a little bit more extensively. This is exactly what Kesha Rogers said; we need to have an educational process for the American people over the coming 45 days in order to really bring this idea of a recovery program to life.

So, I thought it was very useful to listen to the remarks from Kesha Rogers, and to hear that in her own voice. As she said, we're in a very unique to respond to the demand of leadership that's needed today. She said, I think that if we take this kind of national sense of mission, we can really inspire people across party lines. This is not a question of party politics, she said. She called for a swarm of leadership from across the nation; she said, "We need a swarm of leadership of people who will commit to restoring this sense of national mission for our country"; bring us into this New Paradigm of development which is now sweeping the globe. She said what's required is for you and for others to step up to the plate and to provide the kind of leadership required. She said, "I take on that challenge willingly, and I'm looking for others who will do the same."

So I think on that note, we have our sense of mission for the next 45 days. Things will continue to develop very rapidly,

I'm sure; around both the crumbling of this entire so-called "Russia-gate" investigation, as things become more and more revealed and brought out into the light of day. And also as we continue to make breakthroughs on this campaign to make Lyndon LaRouche's Four Economic Laws the law of the land here in the United States.

So, continue to tune in, please, over the coming days as we continue our now 45-day countdown. We will guarantee that we will continue our mobilization and do everything required to make sure that we secure a victory in this campaign to restore the Hamiltonian principles as the law of the land in the United States. So, you can follow more about what Kesha Rogers is doing as we cover her campaign here on larouchepac.com. And you can look forward to next week, the publication of this new pamphlet,

"America's Future on the New Silk Road. LaRouche's Four Laws

The Physical Economic Principles for the Recovery of the United States.” And also, we have the 10,000-print run of the Mueller special dossier that has already penetrated the highest levels of policymaking here in Washington, DC and across the country, and will continue to have – I’m sure – a very groundbreaking effect.

So, thank you for tuning today. Please stay tuned to larouchepac.com and good night.
