Men, tilføjede talspersonen, »bolden er i Ruslands banehalvdel, og præsidenten vil fortsat stille Rusland til regnskab for dets ondskabsfulde aktiviteter. Præsidentens prioritet er at beskytte det amerikanske folk og amerikanske interesser, inkl. vore allieredes og partneres interesser«, sagde hun.

*Den finske premierminister Juha Sipila, der vil være vært for topmødet, skrev på sin Twitterside 28. juni: »Mødet mellem præsiderne Putin og Trump i Helsinki er velkomne nyheder. TRUMP-PUTIN SUMMIT COULD CHANGE THE WORLD!

MATTHEW OGDEN: Good afternoon, it's June 29, 2018. My name is Matthew Ogden, and you're watching our weekly Friday evening broadcast from larouchepac.com.

The big breaking news for today is that the date and the location is now determined for the historic Trump-Putin summit.

This meeting, which has been long deferred, a long time coming, will now be taking place in Helsinki, Finland on July 16, 2018.

This, as you can see from our title image, promises to be an extraordinary and historic event. "Trump-Putin Summit Could Change the World!" An announcement was posted on the White House website yesterday when the details of this meeting were revealed.

As you can see here, it reads:

"President Donald J. Trump and President Vladimir Putin of the Russian Federation will meet on July 16, 2018 in Helsinki, Finland." "Statement from the Press Secretary on a Bilateral Meeting Between the United States and Russia." It read: "The two leaders will discuss relations between the United States and Russia and a range of national security issues." A similar announcement was posted on the Kremlin press service website, which was along very similar lines. This one read: "Vladimir Putin and US President Donald Trump will meet in Helsinki on July 16th. The two Presidents will discuss Russian-US relations and their further development, as well as current international matters."

We know that there are many such issues which can be discussed and are very important and will be discussed between the President of the United States and the President of the Russian Federation, including the situation in Syria, the situation in Ukraine, and the mounting tensions around the nuclear arms race and situations that are similar. Also, we can maybe presume that the situation in North Korea will be a subject of the discussion between these two Presidents, because both of them have been very intimately involved in bringing this situation forward to the breakthrough that has now been achieved.

Now, President Trump himself, speaking with reporters on Wednesday, so before the details of the summit were actually announced, and before the official announcement was made; President Trump had a discussion with reporters. He reiterated his commitment to working not only with Russia, but with China.

So, this is what President Trump had to say: "As I've said from day one, getting along with Russia and with China and with everybody, is a very good thing. It's good for the world, it's good for us, it's good for everybody." This is precisely what we've been saying here at LaRouche PAC. It's this kind of great power relationship – the United States, China, Russia, put India into the mix there, and this is exactly what Lyndon LaRouche has been campaigning for, for years under the rubric of this Four Powers Agreement; that we have to escape from this geopolitical "lose-lose" kind of drive for hegemony and say No. This is now a new system that the world is embracing, and the United States, Russia, China, and other great powers should have a "win-win" relationship. It's only through this kind of collaboration between these leading powers of the world that you can resolve the outstanding, looming issues and challenges which have been threatening world peace and security. North Korea is a perfect example, and we can assume that the other such hotspots and conflict zones can also be resolved in just such a manner; exactly what Helga LaRouche has called over the past two weeks "the Singapore model".

The fact that this meeting is actually going to be taking place in a little bit over two weeks from today, this fact is huge. This meeting has sent the entire trans-Atlantic geopolitical establishment into a state of absolute hysteria.

was precisely this sort of face-to-face summit meeting between President Trump and President Putin which the entire Mueller Russia-gate probe was aimed at preventing. But despite a year and a half of witch hunts and propaganda, this so-called investigation is yielding zero evidence at this point of so-called “Russian collusion” in meddling with the elections. Despite this attempted coup against President Trump and the intended rapprochement between the United States and Russia, despite these efforts this meeting is going forward, and is poised to be just as historic and potentially even more historic than the last big summit President Trump had; the one between himself and Chairman Kim Jong-un in Singapore.

Let me just go through a couple of examples of the absolute hysterical reaction that we’re seeing in the British and Western mainstream press to this announcement. Here’s an example in the {Guardian} newspaper. Headline: “UK Nervous over Unpredictable

Trump Summit with Putin”. Subhead: “British diplomats fear impulsive US President will make Russia a personal offer and leave Europe in the lurch.” So, that’s a picture of Trump and Theresa May. Then, {The Atlantic} had a similar headline: “The Trump-Putin Summit: What the Europeans Fear!” And here’s one in

{Vanity Fair}: “|’This Plays to Russia’s Advantage!| As Trump Salivates over Putin, Allies Fear Another Diplomatic Disaster.”

And then the subhead there, which you may or may not be able to read, says the following: “Just as Trump blew off the G-7 and ran straight into Kim’s arms, experts worry the President will clash with NATO and find sucker in Putin. ‘The fact is, that he is meeting with Putin right afterwards, and the Putin meeting is going to go really well,’ said one analyst. ‘And NATO, quite possibly, is going to be as bad as G-7.’|”

So there you can see, they're drawing the direct parallel to what happened when President Trump attended the G-7 meeting in Canada and said this institution is irrelevant. He said Russia should be a member and we should return this to the status of the G-8. And he left early and got on a plane to go to Singapore to meet with Kim Jong-un, where he made much more significant history. As that article was saying, the exact same kind of scenario could happen with the NATO summit; where Trump says this is irrelevant, and instead goes and meets with President Putin in Helsinki. And says, we need a new security architecture. That would be a good thing, and not a bad thing. The other headlines include the {New York Times}: "As Summit Nears, NATO Allies Have

One Main Worry – Trump". And then the {Washington Post} had a very similar headline: "NATO Members Worry as White House Plans

Trump-Putin Summit".

What's interesting is that this is not intended to just be a one-off meeting. This is intended to be the first in a continuing series of such high-level President-to-President bilateral summits. According to reports, US National Security Advisor John Bolton, who was just in Moscow on June 27th to conduct the preliminary rounds of planning for this upcoming summit between Trump and Putin, Bolton told a press conference that it would be possible that President Trump might follow up this meeting by going and attending the Eastern Economic Forum in Vladivostok, Russia, on September 11-13th. So, the month following, have a follow-up meeting, during which he would have another opportunity to sit down with Putin and follow up on what they will discuss during the Helsinki summit on July 16th. This in and of itself is a very significant thing. The meeting itself is the so-called "deliverable"; that this is the opening of an important relationship. Just as we saw the developing friendship between President Trump and President Xi Jinping with first the Mar-a-Lago summit and then President Trump's personal visit to Beijing for the state visit-plus. We may see a similar process now beginning to unfold between President Trump and President Putin.

So, let me just play a short clip from a webcast that Helga Zepp-LaRouche broadcast earlier this week. This was broadcast before the official announcement confirming the date and the location of this Trump-Putin summit in Helsinki. But what you'll hear is her emphasis on the extraordinary strategic importance of this upcoming meeting. So, here's what Helga Zepp-LaRouche had to say:

HELGA ZEPP-LAROUCHE

: I think it's of strategic importance, because obviously, Trump feels somehow freed, with Russiagate turning into Muellergate, with the very successful Singapore summit [with Kim Jong-un], so I think this is a very, very important development.

But just clinically, I want to mention the fact that the German conservative daily {Die Welt} says this summit would be the absolute catastrophe, because there would be the danger that

Trump and Putin would make an agreement, whereby the NATO maneuvers in Eastern Europe are reduced and that Trump would portray himself as the big peace-maker. [laughs] That shows you how absolutely crazy this neo-liberal/neo-conservative on both sides of the Atlantic is: What could anybody who likes to have world peace wish better than that Russia and the United States, which after all are the two most powerful nuclear forces on the planet, if they could come to a strategic agreement?

So, this is a very important, good development. And obviously, this will now occur after the NATO summit and after Trump's short trip to Great Britain, but I think my absolute hunch would be that the two presidents will hit it off very well, because they have basically a better understanding of the strategic situation, than their critics. So that is good news....

This is exactly what should happen, that you have an increasing cooperation among the largest powers in the world: the United States, China, Russia, and as we discussed earlier, there is also some slower motion on the side of India, to come to such an agreement. They have a good relationship with the United States anyway, and also with Russia, but now they are working more closely with China.

I can only repeat it: Those people who are used to thinking in terms of geopolitical blueprints, or paradigms, they should really understand that in the world which has so many problems and so many urgent tasks to solve, the best thing is really if the large powers find a strategic understanding and hopefully, eventually will work together to solve all of these problems. And those people are still caught up in the old, geopolitical, zero-sum game – one wins, the other one must lose – this is a completely ridiculous, old-fashioned, outdated idea. I have called, at the beginning of the year, that this year must become the year when geopolitics is overcome, and with China's New Silk Road, you have already a win-win model of relations, where everybody wins. So I would just urge people to rethink the way they look at the world....

Now, I'm just having the pleasure of reading a very nice book which the Schiller Institute published. It's "The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge, Vol. II}, just fresh off the printer, and it has all the conceptions in it for what is necessary to immediately start these large-scale development projects. So I would really think there may be more people who would want to know what is in this book.

OGDEN: Now, as we speak, Helga Zepp-LaRouche is beginning to address an international conference which will be held this weekend in Germany, sponsored by the Schiller Institute. We'll have much more coverage of this conference for you over the weekend as it proceeds. You can expect further in-depth reports during our Monday broadcast here on larouchepac.com. But one of the highlights of that conference is the official release of that new special report that you just saw Helga mention and hold up.

"The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge, Volume II.

Shared Future for Humanity." This was published by the Schiller

Institute and it's an extraordinary follow-on to a similar report on that same subject which was published now four years ago. What I'd like to do is read you some excerpts from Helga Zepp-LaRouche's introduction that is published as the Preface to this report, which she wrote to situate the entire contents of this very extensive report. So, here's what Helga LaRouche's introduction is to this new special report:

"The spirit of the New Silk Road has changed the world for the better much more thoroughly than the trans-Atlantic sector has even remotely understood until now. Since Chinese President Xi Jinping placed the New Silk Road on the agenda in September 2013 in Kazakhstan, optimism on an unprecedented scale has swept over the developing countries in particular. A sense that poverty and under-development can be overcome in the foreseeable future, thanks to Chinese investments in infrastructure, industry, and agriculture. Geopolitically-oriented circles in the West have not understood that China is implementing a new model of international policy which tackles the deficit which the legacy of colonialism and imperialism has bequeathed up to this day; the absolute lack of development. And because China is thus addressing the existential needs of billions of people, that policy is likely to be the greatest revolution in the history of mankind.

"In the nearly four years that have elapsed since the release of the first 374-page comprehensive study, 'The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge', in December 2014, numerous projects that were conceptualized in that report have been carried out. Others, such as the Transaqua Project for the revitalization of Lake Chad and the development of a waterway system for 12 African countries have been agreed upon by the governments involved, and feasibility studies are being drawn up.

China's Belt and Road Initiative has become the largest infrastructure program in human history. The Belt and Road Forum in May 2017 brought together 29 heads of state and government, and more than 1200 representatives from more than 140 nations, including this author [Helga Zepp-LaRouche herself]. Hundreds of conferences and seminars on this subject have been held around the world, and more and more countries see that their economic opportunities lie in becoming a hub for the New Silk Road and the Maritime Silk Road for the 21st Century.

"However, it is not only the enormous economic perspectives derived from economic cooperation on a 'win-win' basis that have fundamentally changed the overall strategic situation, but also

– and above all – Xi Jinping's idea of a 'community of shared future for mankind'. With the Silk Road initiative and the idea of a 'community of shared future for mankind', Xi Jinping has developed a totally new model for relations among the nations of the world which supersedes the previous geopolitical rivalries of the blocs with the higher idea of one, single mankind, whose sovereign states cooperate with one another to their mutual benefit. As Xi Jinping explained in his October 8, 2017 report to the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, he is pursuing the vision of initiating developments by 2050 that allow for the peaceful coexistence of all sovereign nations on Earth, and a happy life for people. Largely unnoticed or disregarded by the euro-centric or America-centric view of the mainstream media, is the fact that entirely new strategic orientations are developing in Asia as a result of this grand design and that Asian countries are in the process of overcoming past historical antagonisms and working out a new type of cooperation. Numerous countries which were played against each other until recently in geopolitical scenarios, now see a much more promising perspective in a strategic realignment of cooperation for mutual benefit and for a higher idea of the common development of all mankind.

"The historical breakthrough that President Trump and Chairman Kim Jong-un were able to achieve in Singapore on June 12th, involving an agreement on full nuclear disarmament in return for security guarantees which China wants to help provide, as well as the lifting of sanctions and North Korea's economic development, would have been unthinkable without the spirit of the New Silk Road that has triggered throughout Asia the optimistic mindset that genuine changes for the better are, indeed, possible. The economic modernization of North Korea pledged by Trump, Russia, and China, which will make it 'prosperous and wealthy' corresponds to the intention discussed at the inter-Korean summit between Moon Jae-in and Kim Jong-un in April, and prior to that at the Eastern Economic Union forum in Vladivostok in September 2017. Both Koreas are to be included in the integration of the Belt and Road Initiative, and the Eurasian

Economic Union, including the connection of the future trans-Korean railway to the Trans-Siberian Railway and to China's transportation network.

"Another good example of this is the policy change in Japan and in India. Following a two-day summit between President Xi Jinping and Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi in April of this year, the two most populous states in the world recalibrated their relations to each other. Speaking at the Shangri-la Dialogue in Singapore on June 1st, Modi appealed to the world to rise above divisions and rivalries, and to opt instead to work together. He referred to the deep conceptions of Vedantic philosophy going back to the Vedas and Upanishads of ancient India; namely the idea of the 'essential oneness of all' and the idea that every individual soul is that being in full and not part of that being. Modi concluded, 'This world is at a crossroads. There are temptations of the worst lessons of history, but there is also a path of wisdom. It summons us to a higher purpose; to rise above a narrow view of our interests and recognize that each of us can serve our interests better when we work together as equals in the larger good of all nations. I am here to urge all to take that path.'

"Xi Jinping has developed a new model for relations among major powers based on the principles of absolute respect for the sovereignty of others, of non-interference in internal affairs, and respect for the respective other political and social system.

From this standpoint, it is most fortunate that President Trump and President Xi, from the very first meeting of the former and the latter at Mar-a-Lago in April 2017, established an exceptionally friendly relationship with one another. Xi returned the invitation to Trump's private residence with a state visit-plus for Trump to China in November. Despite all the tensions with China over differences of opinion as to how to overcome the trade deficit, Trump has repeatedly called Xi a good friend. But it is above all the historic breakthrough with North Korea that would have simply been unthinkable without the relationship between Donald Trump and Xi Jinping.

"The world is changing dramatically, and the change is happening in Asia. The new era must be based on the best traditions of all the cultures involved. In China, Confucius stand for the ideal of self-perfection through lifelong learning and ennoblement of the character as a precondition of harmonious coexistence in the family, the nation, and among nations. The notion of the mandate of heaven implies that the duty of government is to ensure the common good. In Indian culture, this corresponds to the idea of dharma; the idea that universal laws set the rules for shaping relations on Earth; i.e., that the cosmic order is also valid on Earth. For European civilization, which America belongs to, the equivalent is the humanist tradition. An expression of this approach are the ideas of Nicholas von Cusa, the {Coincidentia Oppositorum}; that is, that human reason is capable of a higher level of thinking on which the contradictions of the intellect are resolved. Order in the macrocosm is only possible if all the microcosms develop in the best possible way and to their mutual benefit. The 1648 Treaty of Westphalia is built on this foundation, which gave rise to international law; as is the philosophy of Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz and Friedrich Schiller.

In Russia, the same basic principle is expressed in the idea of Vladimir Vernadsky that the significance of the noosphere is constantly increasing over that of the biosphere; and that therefore, the role of creative reason as a physical power increases.

"The spirit of a new beginning, the cultural optimism about imminent breakthroughs in fundamental research and an unprecedented dynamic towards the betterment of mankind's living conditions, all this characterizes the development in Asia. And this optimism has long since rubbed off on Latin America and Africa. We in Europe and the United States should recognize and exploit the tremendous potential it will mean for our economies if we join in this win-win cooperation. Provided we count on qualitative innovation as a source of social wealth, collaboration with the New Silk Road is by no means a threat. On the contrary, it offers us the urgently needed chance to rediscover our true identity."

Now, this is the introduction, or an excerpt from the introduction that Helga Zepp-LaRouche wrote to this new report which, as I mentioned, is just being debuted and released this weekend at the major Schiller Institute in Germany. This report, as you can see, is available and will be circulated. It's something you should definitely get your copy of. We'll let you know how you can access that once that's available. As you can see, this report, "The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge", lays out the blueprint for this New Paradigm of civilization. Emphatically this is not written from the standpoint of dry observation as an outsider. This is written from the standpoint of the intellectual leaders of this New Paradigm – Helga Zepp-LaRouche, Lyndon LaRouche, the LaRouche movement – which planted the seeds for what we're now seeing emerging as this dominant dynamic on the globe today, all the way back as we reviewed on our Monday broadcast, all the way back in the early 1990s; but really going back through the '80s, and including into the 1970s when Lyndon LaRouche first proposed in 1975 the idea of a new international economic order in the form of his International Development Bank. You can trace the heredity of that idea all the way to what we're now seeing emerging with this New Silk Road which is now becoming this global dynamic – the World Land-Bridge. As Helga Zepp-LaRouche said in that introduction, this is cause for extraordinary optimism, but we must absolutely fight to bring the United States and Europe into this new, emerging dynamic. This cannot exist as an adversarial geopolitical rivalry on this planet. Neither one of these paradigms can survive. As Abraham Lincoln said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." You cannot continue to have this trans-Atlantic, hegemonic type of geopolitical containment operation against China, Russia, and these other emerging economies, and still expect that this New Paradigm will continue to march forward. That will bring us to the cusp of another World War, just as we observed with World War I at the beginning of the 20th Century. This is the so-called Thucydides Trap. Rather, these countries of Western Europe and the United States must recognize that this new win-win dynamic is the pathway toward a shared future for mankind where we can finally overcome the adolescence of mankind and overcome this idea that war is even a possibility for resolving disputes between nations. In the age of thermonuclear weapons, you can no longer have that option. That's why it's absolutely laughable, as Helga Zepp-LaRouche said, for those in the Western mainstream media to say, "Oh, it's a horrible thing for Trump and Putin to meet, because they might strike a peace deal." That's a ridiculous criticism. In fact, as President Trump has said repeatedly, this kind of relationship between the United States and Russia, and also between the United States and China, and between the United States and everybody else, is a very good thing. Not only for those countries, but for the entire world. So, with that said, here in the United States, we must continue our campaign for the United States to join this emerging New Paradigm. As we've documented repeatedly, our driving force, our number one agenda here in the United States, is the LaRouche PAC 2018 Campaign to Win the Future. Here you can see, LaRouche's Four Laws for Economic Recovery. This is the New Paradigm for mankind. The United States must join the New Silk Road. It's available. This is the campaign page – lpac.co/yt2018. You can get a copy of this platform which is in mass circulation in the United States, and also become an active member of this entire Campaign 2018.

When we launched this campaign months back, we said this is what's going to be shaping and determining the agenda for the mid-term elections. Well, the mid-term elections are ongoing, and what we're seeing is that indeed, we are in the midst of a very fluid and dynamic situation in the politics here in the United States. As we said in the introduction to this pamphlet, this LaRouche PAC 2018 Campaign to Win the Future, the 2016 elections – which not only elected President Trump above 12 other establishment Republicans; but also saw that Bernie Sanders almost secured the Democratic nomination, if it were not for the political machinations and the massive rigging of that primary by the Hillary campaign – this was a demonstration that party politics as usual, establishment politics as usual, was over in this country. Go back four years. Lyndon LaRouche was already forecasting that that would occur. In his 90th birthday address,

Lyndon LaRouche said that in 2012; look, the age of establishment party politics as we know it is over. We're seeing the brewing of a revolt, an insurgency among the American people, where they're going to reject the party establishment of both political parties. Well, that was not just a one-time occurrence in 2016.

What we're watching now is that we are indeed in the midst of an ongoing revolt by the American people against this establishment geopolitics, Wall Street crowd; a revolt which is continuing to pervade and upend both parties. So, demonstrating that the Trump insurgency, the insurgency that carried Trump to number one in the Republican Party, and almost carried Bernie Sanders to become the nominee in the Democratic Party – again, were it not for the rigging by the Hillary Clinton campaign – a demonstration that this is continuing we saw unfolding over the course of this week in Tuesday's primaries. We saw a couple of very surprising, big political upsets on the Republican side, including in South Carolina where Henry McMaster won this primary. He was endorsed at the last minute by President Trump in a move that the entire media establishment said was a huge mistake. He did, indeed, come out on top. Similar situations occurred elsewhere in Republican primaries. But even bigger than those results, were the shocking, surprising results in the Democratic primary in the Bronx-Queens district in New York City. This seat has been held for 20 years by Joe Crowley, who was considered to be next-in-line to become Speaker of the House behind Nancy Pelosi if the Democrats regained the majority in the House of Representatives. Crowley never had a primary opponent; he doesn't even live in the district. His family reported had moved out of New York City and had bought a house outside of Washington, DC. But for the first time ever, he faced a primary opponent, and his primary opponent was a 28-year old Latina woman, a daughter of a Puerto Rican and a former volunteer with the Bernie Sanders by the name of Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez. In this campaign, Crowley, who's got deep pockets and huge connections to Wall Street, spent $3.4 million in the campaign. Ocasio-Cortez only spent $200,000. In an absolute shocking victory, Ocasio-Cortez on election night on Tuesday, came out far ahead of Crowley; and not only upset his pathway to becoming the next Speaker of the House, but proved that nobody is safe among the Democratic establishment; just as nobody is safe among the Republican establishment. It's being compared to Doug Brat's victory over Eric Cantor here in Virginia a few years back, which was seen as a bellwether in fact for what later happened in 2016. But to be honest, this is much bigger, indeed. And it shows you that the revolution that was going on inside the Democratic Party in 2016 is indeed continuing. Just to note, Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, if she does win the November general elections, as she almost 100% will, will also become the youngest woman to be serving in the US House of Representatives. Helga Zepp-LaRouche actually addressed this victory by Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and the stunning defeat of Joe at a later point during her webcast earlier this week. I would like to just play you that short excerpt from Helga LaRouche's webcast.

HELGA ZEPP-LAROUCHE

: This Crowley campaign with $3 million, and this 28-year-old woman who won the primary, she only have $300,000 for the campaign. And she campaigned on the fact that Crowley was a tool of Wall Street, and obviously this was the main argument why she won the election.
So, I think it is a quite good reason to think that not everything is controlled by the financial oligarchy, that money no longer buys every seat, which it used to do for a long time, and that there is the chance to really change the situation in the world for the better.
Now, I want to end by again asking you to join the Schiller Institute, join a Renaissance movement, and help us to distribute these ideas, so that more people can share and join in this optimism, that man {is} indeed greater than his destiny, and that if many people of good will are joining forces together, that – as Schiller says in one of his writings about the revolt of the Netherlands from Spain – that you can bring down even the arm of the strongest tyrant by uniting for a good plan.
So please, unite with us, and let's really move civilization in a better domain.

OGDEN: So, that's a very optimistic note from Helga LaRouche. And this indeed proves that we are in very fertile for a political revolution in this country. Do not get trapped into thinking in partisan terms. Do not allow yourself to get sucked down into that level. Think on the level that Helga Zepp-LaRouche just said; if people around the world can unite around a good plan, around the policies which are urgently necessary to resolve the crisis which we're now facing, we can move history forward and we can overcome our destiny.

So, what is that good plan? What is the program to unite around? That's the entire core purpose of the LaRouche PAC 2018 Campaign to Win the Future. LaRouche's Four Laws: Glass-Steagall. Shut down this Wall Street casino. Erect a firewall; protect the legitimate banking operations in commercial banking in the United States as a means of protecting us from the probability of a trans-Atlantic meltdown of this casino economy.

Then use that to completely recreate the financial processes here in the United States by reinstating the Hamiltonian idea of a national bank. A Third National Bank, or a revival of, what Franklin Roosevelt did with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, to use the credit creation capabilities of the Federal government to direct trillions of dollars of credit directly into great projects like we're seeing in China and China's building in Africa and elsewhere. Great projects to rebuild the United States, to employ the American population in high productivity, highly skilled, high paying jobs; and to use that to increase the productivity and the living standards of the United States. Then the entire way that that can be directed forward into the future is to adopt a vision; a vision of space exploration, breakthroughs in the frontiers of science and technology, including fusion power and all the derivatives of that kind of scientific breakthrough. From that standpoint, the United States can join this emerging New Paradigm for a common future for all humanity.

So, that's the vision. We're in the middle of an ongoing political revolution in this country, and it requires leaders, citizens in this country who are able to overcome this idea of partisanship and party politics as usual and say No. We will unite our efforts towards this common destiny, towards these common aims. And do that here in the United States, and then also do that among nations abroad. That's the New Paradigm of politics here in the United States and that's the New Paradigm of international relations on this planet.

We're living in very exciting times; very historic times. I think that this conference that's happening this weekend in Germany could not be scheduled to be occurring at a more timely moment in world history. You can look forward to some very exciting updates from that, and I'm sure that there will be countless numbers of emerging developments that are going to be occurring on the global stage as well. So, by all means, become active in what we're doing; join our 2018 Campaign to Win the Future; get a copy of this new special report, Volume 2 of "The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-Bridge." And stay tuned to larouchepac.com, because we have a lot of work to do. Thank

very much, and we'll see you on Monday.

Vi skylder dette til LaRouches årtier lange arbejde

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 28. juni, 2018 – 'Fake news'-medierne udelukker i bogstavelig forstand det forestående Trump-Putin-topmøde – de finder alt og intet til at fylde deres forsider med i stedet. Hvorfor? Fordi dette topmøde allerede udgør et så massivt nederlag for dem og en sådan enorm sejr for LaRouche-kræfterne, og for Lyndon LaRouche personligt.

Men, hvis du vil vide, hvad de virkelig tænker, så læs abonnementssavisen London Times i dag, der har følgende overskrift på sin historie: »Voksende frygt over udsigt til Trump-'fredsaftale' med Putin«.

»Storbritannien frygter, at præsident Trump vil underminere NATO ved at indgå en 'fredsaftale' med præsident Putin, når de to mødes i næste måned. Regeringsministre er bekymrede over, at hr. Trump kunne blive overtalt til at nedgradere USA's militære forpligtelser i Europa og således kompromittere NATO-landes forsvar mod russisk aggression. Folkevalgte er ligeledes bekymrede over, at han kunne give hr. Putin en propagandasejr ved at annullere eller ændre alliancens planlagte militærøvelser ...

En regeringsminister sagde: 'Det, vi er nervøse for, er, at der pludselig skal blive annonceret en eller anden form for Putin-Trump-'fredsaftale'. Vi kan forestille os, at Trump og Putin siger, »hvorfor har vi alt dette militærudstyr i Europa?« og blive enige om i fællesskab at fjerne det.' De tilføjede, at enhver sådan politik fra hr. Trumps side ville være svær at navigere: 'Det er svært at være imod fred, men ville det være en reel fred?'«

En hermed relateret, tidligere historie fra 21. juni siger, »Udsigten til et møde har udløst alarm i Whitehall [den britiske regering] og giver næring til frygt over hr. Trumps forpligtelse over for NATO og virkningen på hans besøg til Storbritannien«.

Hvis det lyder ekstremt – den tidligere premierminister Tony Blair er så oprørt, at han truer os med en ny Hitler, med mindre vi opfører os ordentligt. En forhåndstekst af Blairs tale 27. juni til Chatham House/Royal Institute for International Affairs, som han gav avisen Guardian den 26. juni, siger, at han vil fortælle Donald Trump, før Trumps besøg til Europa i juli, »at han må handle for at bevare den transatlantiske alliance, eller også vil han svække hele Vesten i kampen mod fremvoksende nationer, såsom Kina«.

Blair meddelte i Chatham House, at »den transatlantiske alliance er grundfjeldet, på hvilket vores værdisystem og livsmåde hviler. Og dog efterlader højrefløjens forvisning af alliancen som værende af sekundær betydning for den nationale interesse snarere end en del af den, og vestrefløjens refleksreaktion imod alt, der er amerikanskledet, denne alliance i fare for brud ...

Globaliseringen og dens fortalere er i en ufordelagtig position. Venstre- og højre-populisme mødes i et vist punkt med fordømmelse af frihandelsarrangementer, migration og internationale alliancer. De fremstilles alle som værende kontrære til at sætte individuelle, nationale interesser først.

Når det først bliver klart, at populisme ikke virker, fordi det sluttelig kun tilbyder udtryk for vrede og ikke faktiske svar, vil populisterne måske fordoble indsatsen og hævde, at fiasko er resultatet af halvhjertethed, og at kun mere af det samme vil virke.

Hjem ved, hvor dette scenaries dynamik vil bringe os? Så virker sammenligningerne med 1930'erne ikke længere helt ude i hegnet.«

Blair burde vide det. Det var hans gruppe, der før gav os Hitler, som Schiller Instituttets stifter og præsident, Helga Zepp-LaRouche, og hendes medarbejdere viste i The Hitler Book (1984).

Trump-Putin-topmødet 16. juli er en sejr for Lyndon LaRouche og hans ideer, der går tilbage til det Strategiske Forsvarsinitiativ og den Europæiske Produktive Trekant, der blev til den Eurasiske Landbro og i dag, den Nye Silkevej. Dette var de forskellige stadier af LaRouches overordnede design for, hvordan den Kolde Krig skulle afsluttes, og hvad, den skulle erstattes med. Ved hver, successiv anledning blev de tilsyneladende besejret. Som LaRouche sagde, vi kæmpede og tabte igen, og igen, og igen. Men nu, efter årtiers tragiske omveje for menneskeheden, er disse samme ideer pludselig tilbage i en anden form – og denne gang vinder vi! Alle disse ideer går igen direkte tilbage til LaRouches tilbagevisning i 1948 af Norbert Wieners onde vildfarelser.

Med annonceringen af dette topmøde, tager en helt ny geometri for verden mere og mere form, og tager mere og mere over. Helga Zepp-LaRouche har krævet, at året 2018 skal være det år, der markerer afslutningen på geopolitik. Det syntes måske lidt vel langt ude, da hun sagde det ved årets begyndelse – men nu synes det slet ikke at være langt ude, vel?

Sammen med geopolitik, svinder alle de andre gamle, velkendte opskrifter for, hvordan man styrer nationers og folkeslags anliggender, nu bort i meningsløshed. For de fleste mennesker, og selv for de fleste statsoverhoveder og regeringer, er de regler, ved hvilke de kom om ved tingene, ikke længere gyldige. De er nu i terra incognita, ukendt land. Nu vil kun LaRouches metoder virke. En fremragende gennemgang af kernegrundlaget for LaRouches livslange præstation er hans korte artikel, »On a Basket of Hard Commodities: Trade Without Currency«, fra 18. juli, 2000, som findes genoptrykt i EIR fra 29. juni, 2018. Her gennemgår LaRouche, hvordan et nyt, globalt, monetært system må frembringes, under betingelser som i nutiden. For at give den nødvendige baggrund og dybde i forståelse, som kræves, sammendrager han sine opdagelser gennem et halvt århundrede som en eneste enhed uden overgangssømme.

Rent umiddelbart er selvfølgelig Trump-Putin-topmødet en sejr for den kamp, vi har ført imod forsøg på at fjerne den lovligt valgte præsident ved hjælp af falske anklager om 'aftalt spil' med Rusland. Selv om vi endnu ikke har besejret »Russiagate«, har vi fået tilstrækkelig landvinding til at gøre det muligt, at dette topmøde, som Trump altid har ønsket, endelig kunne finde sted, efter to år i præsidentskabet. Når vi nu går ind i den superophedede amerikanske valgsæson med LaRouchePAC's »Kampagne for at vinde fremtiden«, er det næste skridt en afgørende besejring af den særlige anklager Robert Mueller og kompagni. Når denne mission er fuldført, bør det næste, passende skridt måske være at genoplive Benjamin Franklins forslag, som desværre blev sprunget over dengang, nemlig, at Tory-forræderne alle sammen burde blive sendt med skib tilbage til Storbritannien, hvor de hører hjemme.

Introduktion og disposition

To systemer foreligger for verden. Det ene, det transatlantiske, City of London/Wall Street-finansimperium, har befundet sig i en tilstand af »frit fald« siden krakket i 2007-2008, et finanskak, som Lyndon LaRouche forudsagde i et webcast, 25. juli, 2007:

»Det, der er optegnet som aktieværdier og markedsværdier internationalt på finansmarkederne, er vrøvl! Dette er rent fiktive trosobjekter. Der er intet sandt i det; falskneriet er enormt. Der er ingen mulighed for et ikkekollaps af det nuværende finanssystem – ingen! Det er færdigt, nu! Det nuværende finanssystem kan ikke forsætte med at eksistere under nogen omstændigheder, under noget præsidentskab, under noget lederskab eller noget lederskab af nationer. Udelukkende kun en fundamental og pludselig ændring af det globale, monetære finanssystem vil forhindre et generelt, kædereaktionslignende kollaps. I hvilket tempo, ved vi ikke, men det vil fortsætte, og det vil være ustoppeligt! Og jo længere, det står på, før det stopper, desto værre bliver

Præsidenterne Putin og Trump skal mødes i Helsinki 16. juli

28. juni, 2018 – Topmødet mellem den russiske og amerikanske præsident, Vladimir Putin og Donald Trump, vil finde sted i Helsinki 16. juli, annoncerede Kremls pressetjeneste i dag. »Ifølge aftalen vil mødet mellem den russiske præsident Vladimir Putin og den amerikanske præsident Donald Trump finde sted 16. juli i Helsinki«, lyder udtalelsen og fastslår, at de to ledere vil drøfte »den aktuelle tilstand og udsigterne for yderligere udvikling af russisk-amerikanske relationer, og ligeledes vitale spørgsmål på den internationale dagsorden«, og en lignende udtalelse kom fra Det Hvide Hus.

Ifølge assistent til Kreml Yuri Ushakov, vil mødet sandsynligvis vare mange timer: Der bliver en protokolbegivenhed, et tête-à-tête møde og en fælles pressekonference. Ushakov foreslog, at Putin og Trump kunne komme med en fælles erklæring, der skitserer »de to landes næste skridt, både mht. at forbedre de bilaterale relationer, tage fælles skridt på den internationale arena og opretholde global stabilitet og sikkerhed«, sagde han.

Muligheden for et efterfølgende møde blev tidligere fremsat at USA's nationale sikkerhedsrådgiver John Bolton, der 27. juni under en pressekonference i Moskva sagde, at han ikke vidste, om præsident Donald Trump ville deltage i det Østlige Økonomiske Forum i Vladivostok 11.-13. sept., men han ville ikke udelukke det.

Trump-Putin-topmøde aftalt! Geopolitik kan knuses!

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 27. juni, 2018 – Det lange ventede topmøde mellem præsident Donald Trump og præsident Vladimir Putin er nu officielt blevet aftalt, og dato og sted annonceres i Washington og Moskva den 28. juni. Næsten to år efter, at britisk efterretning orkestrerede skabelsen af FBI's »Få-ram-på-Trump-specialstyrken« under James Comey, med Peter Strzok et al., vil Det britiske Imperiums mareridt – et topmøde mellem disse to præsidenter – nu finde sted.

Assistent til præsident Putin, Yuri Ushakov, annoncerede aftalen efter USA's nationale sikkerhedsrådgiver John Boltons møder i dag med den russiske udenrigsminister Sergei Lavrov, præsident Vladimir Putin, forsvarsminister, general Sergei Shoigu og Ushakov. »Dette er faktisk, hvad John Boltons besøg var planlagt for, og det har givet de resultater, vi havde forventet«, rapporterede Ushakov yderligere og sagde, at diskussionen var »særlig nyttig netop i sammenhæng med at forberede et topmøde«. Diskussioner dækkede alt fra strategisk stabilitet i verden, kontrol med atomvåben og nedrustning generelt, og til regionale spørgsmål, med fokus på Syrien, den interne, ukrainske krise, Nordkorea og USA's tilbagetrækning fra den Fælles Omfattende Handlingsplan med Iran, rapporterede Ushakov. Og så, naturligvis, anden med »russisk indblanding i USA's valg«.

Annonceringen fremprovokerede sådanne hyl fra geopolitiske 'diehards' som udtalelsen i den tyske, konservative avis Die Welt om, at dette topmøde var en absolut katastrofe, fordi der er fare for, at Trump og Putin kunne indgå en aftale, hvorved NATO-øvelser i Østeuropa reduceres, og at Trump kunne fremstille sig selv som den store fredsskaber.

»Det viser, hvor absolut sindssyg denne neoliberale/neokonservative fraktion på begge sider Atlanten er«, udbrød Schiller Instituttets præsident Helga Zepp-LaRouche i dag i sin ugentlige webcast. »Hvad kunne nogen, der ønsker verdensfred, ønske sig mere, end at Rusland og USA, der trods alt er de to mægtigste atommagter på planeten, kunne komme frem til en strategisk aftale? Dette er en meget vigtig, god udvikling.«

Efter hendes mening »vil de to præsidenter komme godt ud af det med hinanden, for de har grundlæggende set en bedre forståelse af den strategiske situation end deres kritikere«.

Føj til dette billede, at, ligeledes i dag, modtog den kinesiske præsident Xi Jinping den amerikanske forsvarsminister James Mattis i Beijing med det formål at opbygge strategisk tillid mellem de to lande. »Det er præcis, hvad der bør ske, at vi får et voksende samarbejde mellem verdens største magter: USA, Kina, Rusland og, som vi tidligere har diskuteret, så kommer der også en langsommere bevægelse fra Indiens side, for at komme frem til en sådan aftale«, erklærede Zepp-LaRouche.

Med hensyn til Europa, så, alt imens det europæiske etablissement fortsat er ude af stand til at erkende, at deres vestlige model står foran kollaps, mener Schiller Instituttets præsident, at hendes forslag om et EU-topmøde med præsident Xi og afrikanske ledere for at nå frem til en aftale om samarbejde omkring udviklingen af Afrika til at blive et moderne kraftcentrum, vil modnes og give frugt. »Man kunne få en situation, hvor et antal europæiske lande kunne indkalde til et sådant hastetopmøde i juli eller august. Man kunne sætte dette på dagsordenen i FN's Generalforsamling i New York, og man kunne i mellemtiden danne en 'koalition af de villige' – for nu at give denne frygtelige sætning en mere positiv mening – og man kunne begynde at gå i denne retning«, sagde hun.

Dette forslag fra 18. juni cirkuleres nu i hele verden på mindst 10 sprog.

Og tilføj også resultaterne af de nylige amerikanske primærvælg, der viser, at der er »ganske god grund til at mene, at ikke alt kontrolleres af finansoligarkiet; at penge ikke længere køber alle pladser, som det plejede i lang tid, og at der er en mulighed for virkelig at ændre situationen i verden til det bedre«, sagde Zepp-LaRouche.

Hvis flere mennesker »tilslutter sig den optimisme, at mennesket virkelig er større end dets skæbne, og hvis mange mennesker af god vilje slår kræfterne sammen, så – som Schiller siger det i et af sine skrifter om opstanden i Nederlandene mod Spanien – så kan man bringe selv den stærkeste tyrans arm til fald ved at forenes omkring en god plan«, sluttede hun.

Helga Zepp-LaRouche i Schiller Institut

Webcast, 27. juni, 2018

Jeg kan kun gentage det: De personer, der er vant til at tænke i baner for geopolitiske planer eller paradigmer, de bør virkelig forstå, at, i en verden, der har så mange problemer og så mange presserende opgaver, der skal løses, så er det bedste virkelig, at stormagterne finder frem til en strategisk forståelse og forhåbentlig slutteligt vil arbejde sammen for at løse alle disse problemer. Og disse mennesker er stadig indfanges i det gamle, geopolitiske nulsumsspil – den ene vinder, og den anden må tabe – og som er en fuldstændig latterlig, gammeldags, forældet idé. Jeg krævede ved årets begyndelse, at dette må blive året, hvor vi overvinder geopolitik, og med Kinas Nye Silkevej har vi allerede en win-win-model for relationer, hvor alle vinder. Så jeg vil blot opfordre folk til at gentanke den måde, de anskuer verden på.

Trump-Putin-topmøde kan ændre verden; fremvoksende fascistiske kræfter ønsker at stoppe det

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 26. juni, 2018 – I juni 1968 udgav Lyndon LaRouche en artikel med titlen, »Det nye venstre, lokal kontrol og fascism«, som beskrev opkomsten af de anarkistiske »68'ere«, som han havde oplevet på første hånd under studenterstrijkerne på Columbia Universitet. Fyrre år senere, i 2008, refererede LaRouche tilbage til denne artikel: »I denne rapport sammenlignede jeg det andet af de to strejker på dette universitet med den måde, på hvilken medlemmer af de kommunistiske og nazistiske partier byttede lunser af deres medlemsskaber frem og tilbage under de uger, hvor datidens berømte sporvognsstrijke i Berlin fandt sted, hvilket førte til nazisterne overtagelse af diktatorisk magt gennem Hermann Görings organisering af branden i Reichstag. Fra foråret 1968 og fremefter, var det, der voksede frem som den klart definerede majoritet i form af det 'Nye Venstre', både i USA og andre steder, grundlæggende set opkomsten af en fascistisk bevægelse, hvilket en nærmere undersøgelse af den anden studenterstrijke i 1968 på Columbia Universitet burde have advaret enhver iagttager, der tænkte seriøst, om. Jeg vidste udmærket, hvad det var, jeg talte om dengang, og jeg ved det meget, meget klarere, og meget mere detaljeret, i dag, fyrrer år senere.«

I dag, efter otte år med Barack Obamas administration, kan sandheden i denne indsigt ikke længere benægtes. Præsident Trump har netop gennemført en historisk intervention i krisen

i Nordkorea og arbejdet sammen med Kina og Rusland. Nu forbereder han et topmøde med Vladimir Putin, et topmøde, der har til hensigt at løse krigen i Syrien og afslutte truslen om en global atomkrig. Hvilken respons kommer der fra dem, der tog eksamen fra 1960'ernes og 1970'ernes »Nye Venstre« og i dag er kommet ind i magtfulde og indflydelsesrige positioner, i Kongressen, i pressen, i Hollywood og i den generelle befolkning? Betænk: Kvindelige kongresmedlemmer, der opfordrer til, at medlemmer af Trumps regering skal chikaneres og intimideres hvor som helst, de befinner sig, »på en restaurant, i et stormagasin, på en tankstation, der tager I hen og skaber en flok. Og så giver I dem modstand. Og I siger til dem, at de ikke længere er velkommen nogen steder«. Berømte skuespillere fra Hollywood, der opfordrer folk til at udvælge de skoler, hvor børnene til embedsmænd i Trumps administration går, »og omringe skolerne i protest«. Restaurationsindehavere, der smider Trumps pressesekretær og hendes familie ud af deres restaurant og forfølger dem til en anden restaurant, hvor de fortsætter chikanen. Er dette ikke fascistisk terror? Vil det føre til, at folk bliver slået ihjel?

Vi befinder os i dag på et punctum saliens (springende punkt), et tidspunkt for et paradigmeskifte i historien enten til det gode eller det onde. Præsidenten har modstået hysteriet med det britiskanstiftede kupforsøg mod USA's regering, kendt som Russiagate. Han er parat til at udvide sit samarbejde med Kina og Rusland om Koreakrisen og til den endnu større krise i den arabiske verden, en krise, der drives frem af ulovlige og folkemorderiske krige, der igen er anstiftet af London, men som gennemføres af Londons »dumme kæmpe« under Bush og Obama. Flygtningekatastrofen i Europa, såvel som også krisen over de »illegale immigranter« i USA, kan kun løses ved, at Trump udvider sit samarbejde med Rusland og Kina til at omfatte den økonomiske side af den globale krise – og fuldt og helt går med i den Nye Silkevejsproces og anvender amerikansk teknologi og dygtighed på massive, internationale udviklingsprojekter i hele Afrika, Sydvestasien og Latinamerika samtidig med, at han også bringer den Nye Silkevej til USA. Så bliver Amerika atter stort.

Forberedelser til Trump-Putin-topmøde fortsætter

26. juni, 2018 – Præsident Trumps nationale sikkerhedsrådgiver John Bolton skal mødes med den russiske udenrigsminister Sergei Lavrov i Moskva i morgen (27. juni), annoncerede Kremls talsmand Dmitry Peskov i dag. Peskov nævnte som Ruslands punkter på dagsordenen til morgendagens drøftelse, »spørgsmålene om international stabilitet og sikkerhed, spørgsmålene om nedrustning og de velkendte, regionale problemer og naturligvis, bilaterale relationer« inden for rammerne af forberedelsen til et eventuelt topmøde mellem Rusland og USA, iflg. TASS. Forespurgt, om Bolton skulle mødes med Putin, svarede Peskov, at »Hvis et sådant møde finder sted, vil vi informere jer om det.«

Der spekuleres til overflod, og det samme gør vilde udbrud af hysteri, der vælder frem fra fortalerne for den gamle, geopolitiske orden, over erkendelsen af, at dette topmøde måske, endelig, rent faktisk kunne finde sted. Typisk er eftermiddagens artikel i Washington Post (After Diplomatic Equivalent of a Multiple-Car Pileup, U.S. Allies Brace for NATO Summit) (Efter det diplomatiske modsvar til et harmonikasammenstød, støtter USA's allierede et NATO-topmøde) og som citerer unavngivne europæiske diplomater, der mumler, at de ikke kan beslutte, hvad der er værst, Trump, der mødes med Putin, før de får lejlighed til at komme ham under behandling på NATO-topmødet, eller bagefter, når de »ikke vil kunne feje op efter møget«. Trumps succesfulde topmøde 12. juni med Nordkoreas Kim Jong-un har øget frygten for, at han kunne nå frem til aftaler med Putin, som fuldstændig ville vælte den Gamle Ordens æblekærre. De er måske også bekymrede over, at Trump kunne gøre med NATO, hvad han gjorde med G7.

City of Londons Financial Times citerer en unavngiven russisk embedsmand for at sige, at topmødet vil blive afholdt efter præsident Trumps besøg 13. juli til Storbritannien efter NATO-topmødet 11.-12. juli, samt at de to lande er nået frem til en foreløbig aftale om værtslandet, som ikke bliver Østrig, men i stedet et land, der er »mere belejligt rent logistisk«. Storbritanniens Daily Telegraph kunne ikke lade være med at offentliggøre bekymrede rygter om, at Trump måske ville rejse til Moskva og være med i World Cup finalen den 15. juli. En unavngiven amerikansk seniorembedsmand sagde til Reuters her til eftermiddag, at man kigger på den finske hovedstad Helsinki som et muligt sted for topmødet. Finlands præsident Sauli Niinisto sendte en tweet som respons på spørgsmål om topmødet og sagde, at »Finland altid er rede til at tilbyde sine gode tjenester, hvis de bliver spurgt«.

Hvor det afholdes er ikke det, der er bid i; at det afholdes er afgørende.

Trump vil mødes med Putin på trods af stormen over immigration, der har til hensigt at stoppe ham

25. juni, 2018 – Det bliver stadig mere sandsynligt, at præsident Trump vil holde det »umulige topmøde« for anden gang på en måned, med at mødes med den russiske præsident Putin i Wien 15. juli. Der er allerede tegn, der viser mødets potentielle med afslutning af mange års krig og terror i Syrien og Afghanistan. Trumps beslutsomhed mht. fremme af stormagtssamarbejde med Rusland, Kina (på trods af fejtagelser og handelsspændinger), Indien og Japan fortsætter med at gå fremefter og har det amerikanske folks støtte. »Russiagate« er ved at blive et bandeord.

Der bør ikke herske nogen som helst tvivl om, at det aktuelle hysteri over immigranter, som er blevet udløst af et par liberale folkevalgte og en masse nationale og internationale medier, er det 'sidste udfald fra skyttegraven' for at række ud efter Trumps afsættelse fra embedet – impeachment – eller endda skabe omstændighederne for fysiske angreb imod ham – før han og ledere som Putin og Xi Jinping totalt river den britiske, geopolitiske »verdensorden« ned. Denne verdensorden, med dens enkeltstående supermagt og ingen begrænsninger for krige for regimeskifte, er langsomt ved at vige for fred. Sammen med fred kommer muligheden for, at produktivitet og økonomisk vækst kan blive frigjort i hele verden, såsom igennem Kinas Bælte & Vej Initiativ for store infrastrukturprojekter – selv, når Trump-administrationen endnu ikke har vist forståelse for dette aspekt.

London, stadig verdens dominerende finanscentrum, kan ikke stå imod dette. Endnu for blot to måneder siden arbejdede UK for den totale isolation af Rusland med sagen om Skripal-forgiftningen – som Theresa Mays regering nu gerne ser gå i glemmebogen. Storbritannien var i færd med at trække Trump ind i et britisk-fransk missilangreb mod Syrien og arbejdede hårdt på at få en permanent amerikansk besættelse og store militærstyrker i det land. Så var der City of Londons finansavis, The Economists spøtske overskrift, »Kim Jong Won« (Kim Jong Vandt): mildest talt lovlig smart, usandt, og som alt for tydeligt viser Londons had til den historiske forandring, der nu opnås omkring Trump-Kim-topmødet.

Det er grunden til, at, når Trump-administrationen gør nøjagtig det samme, som Obama-administrationen gjorde med familierne, der immigrerede illegalt, så bliver Trump kaldt for fascist af den Demokratiske fraktion, der forsøger at afsætte ham fra embedet. Fakta er, at Obama aldrig nævnte menneskehandelen, som bragte børn fra Mellemamerika til den amerikanske grænse; præsident Trump har imidlertid fordømt det for at indhøste $500 mio. om året – sandsynligvis et ekstremt konservativt skøn – ved at handle med menneskeliv.

Den førende fortaler for »impeachment«, kongresmedlem Al Green fra Texas, vil nu selv blive smidt ud af embedet af den uafhængige LaRouche-kandidat, Kesha Rogers, i Houstons 9. kongresdistrikt. Det er sådan, man skal tackle denne falske impeachment-kampagne.[1]

Men, den eneste måde til fundamentalt at angribe disse operationer for menneskehandel fra lande, der ligger ned økonomisk, er udvikling, der skaffer produktiv beskæftigelse og produktive gennembrud, både i USA og i disse lande. Det er, hvad Kinas Bælte & Vej Initiativ gør for Kina og for mange udviklingslande, inklusive i Latinamerika. Hvis Trumps Amerika går med i dette store infrastrukturinitiativ, vil det også have grundlaget for at afgøre uoverensstemmelserne vedrørende handel. USA må udstede statslig kredit til byggeri af infrastruktur og til produktive gennembrud for at gøre dette. Og, USA må bryde Wall Street-bankerne op, før de i stedet udløser endnu et spekulativt finanskrak.

15. juni udgav Helga Zepp-LaRouche et forslag om, at de store, europæiske lande gik med i Kinas Bælte & Vej-udvikling i Afrika, i stedet for at få den Europæiske Union fra hinanden over immigration.[2] Hendes forslag peger ligeledes på grundlaget for den nødvendige handling i USA.

Men, præsident Trump må forsvares imod det britiskanførte fremstød for at afsætte ham eller stoppe hans politikker for stormagtssamarbejde. Lad der komme endnu flere »umulige topmøder«.

Amerika og Kina må samarbejde for at løse krisen om migranter fra Latinamerika

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 24. juni, 2018 – De internationale medier har på det seneste været fuld af hjerteskærende

historier og billeder af tusinder af desperate immigrantbørn fra Mexico og Mellemamerika, der var blevet adskilt fra deres forældre, efter at de kom illegalt ind i USA. Ser man bort fra de skandaløse røverhistorier, som en stor del af medierne bringer – samt det faktum, at hele spørgsmålet promoveres for at forsøge at stoppe præsident Trumps succesfulde fremgangsmåde over for Koreakrisen – så er der imidlertid en særdeles reel immigrationskrise i Amerika, som har accelereret i de senere år.

Men, lær af Sokrates: Hvis man vil finde et svar, må man først stille det rigtige spørgsmål.

Frem til 2015 var 11,5 mio. førstegenerationsmexicanere (dvs., som er født i Mexico), næsten 10 % af befolkningen, emigreret til USA: over 20 % af El Salvadors 6,3 mio. mennesker havde gjort det samme. Hvis man medtager 1.-3. generationer (inkl. børn og børnebørn af dem, der emigrerede til USA), så flygtede det chokerende tal af 28 % af den mexicanske befolkning og 35 % af befolkningen i El Salvador fra deres land. Situationen er tilsvarende for Guatemala og Honduras.

Hvorfor sker dette?

Fordi den potentielle, relative befolkningstæthed i områdets økonomier med overlæg er blevet mindsket til langt under deres faktiske befolkningstal. Som Lyndon LaRouche forklarer i sin videnskab om fysisk økonomi: Når den potentielle, relative befolkningstæthed – eller en økonomis evne til at opretholde en voksende befolkning på en stadigt bedre levestandard – falder ned under det faktiske befolkningstal i en vis periode, vil denne befolkning enten dø, eller flygte.[1] Det er præcis, hvad der er sket i hele dette område, som det tilsigtede resultat af britiske politikker for befolkningsreduktion: En udplyndring af befolkningen gennem gæld til City of London og Wall Street; udløsning af dødbringende krige; og Londons »Dope, Inc.«'[2] og narko-terroristbanders overtagelse af disse lande. Typisk er det faktum, at den sataniske MS-13-bande, der terroriserer El Salvador og andre dele af Mellemamerika, faktisk blev skabt i Los Angeles' ghettoer for årtier siden, overvåget af George H.W. Bush' kontra-crackkokain-politik.

Den eneste måde at løse dette problem på, er at omstøde årsagen til det. Den kollapsende, potentielle, relative befolkningstæthed i Mexico, Mellemamerika og det latinamerikanske og caribiske område generelt må dramatisk vendes omkring gennem fuldt og helt at integrere disse lande i Bælte & Vej Initiativet. Koordineret handling fra Kina og USA's side kan let virkeliggøre dette.

Det første afgørende projekt ville være en højhastighedsjernbanekorridor, der fra Sydamerika løber mod nord, skaber forbindelse over sump- og skovområdet Darien Gap på Panamas og Columbias grænse, løber gennem hele Mellemamerika og ind i Mexico og herfra opad, tværs over Nordamerika til den foreslæde Beringstrædetunnel og opkoblingen til den Eurasiske Landbro.

Kina og Panama bygger allerede sammen den første strækning af en sådan højhastighedsjernbanelinje fra Panama City til grænsen med Costa Rica – hvis regering har gjort det klart, at den ønsker at komme med i projektets forlængelse – hvilket vil blive den første, højhastighedsjernbanelinje på hele den vestlige halvkugle.

En sekundær serie af projekter omfatter forlængelsen af den Maritime Silkevej ind i det caribiske bækken med byggeri af dybvandshavne og tilknyttede industriparker i Ponce, Puerto Rico (en del af USA) og Mariel, Cuba. De ville så udgøre knudepunkter for skibstransport til den amerikanske golf og atlanterhavskysterne, såvel som også til havne i hele det caribiske bækken og Sydamerika, og som ville blive integreret med den nyligt udvidede Panamakanal og ligeledes den foreslæde Store Inter-oceaniske Nicaraguakanal. Det skønnes, at byggeriet af Nicaraguakanalen ville kræve ti tusinder af faglærte jobs, og at virkningen langs kanalen ville skabe produktive jobs til hundrede tusinder af mennesker i hele Mellemamerika.

USA, Kina og hver eneste nation i området har en direkte interesse i at opbygge en sådan fælles fremtid med win-win-samarbejde for deres lande.

Østrig forbereder møde mellem Putin og Trump i Wien til 15. juli, skriver TASS

24. juni, 2018 – De østrigske myndigheder forbereder sig til at være værter for et møde mellem den russiske præsident Vladimir Putin og den amerikanske præsident Donald Trump i Wien 15. juni, rapporterer den østrigske avis Kronen Zeitung i dag, iflg. TASS. Iflg. avisens kilder, ankom diplomatiske repræsentanter for Washington og Moskva for flere dage siden til den østrigske hovedstad for at diskutere detaljerne i afholdelsen af det første, bilaterale topmøde mellem Rusland og USA, skrev det russiske nyhedsagentur. Højtplacerede sikkerhedsfolk fra begge lande er ankommet til Østrig for at forberede mødet, og de er begyndt at overvåge situationen for at forberede forhandlingerne.

Den endelige beslutning om selve datoer for mødet bliver måske truffet midt i næste uge, sagde rapporten. Kremls talsmand Dmitry Peskov sagde søndag, at han ikke var klar til at informere medierne om begivenheden og datoer for afholdelsen af det mulige Putin-Trump-topmøde, rapporterede TASS. »Vi er ikke klar til at give denne information«, sagde Peskov, da han blev bedt om at kommentere den østrigske avis' rapportering. »Vi vil informere jer, så snart, vi er klar.«

Putin og Trump afholdt en telefonsamtale den 20. marts. Iflg. Kremls pressetjeneste blev russiske og amerikanske topdiplomater bedt om at undersøge spørgsmålet. 10. juni bekræftede den russiske præsident, at han var parat til mødes med Trump, så snart Washington var klar til topmødet. 21. juni sagde Peskov, »Hverken Kreml eller Det Hvide Hus er kommet med en officiel udtalelse« om et eventuelt Putin-Trump-topmøde.

Den østrigske kansler Sebastian Kurz bekræftede i et interview med OE-24, at Wien har tilbudt at afholde det russisk-amerikanske topmøde. »Begge præsidenter er parat til at have en dialog. Vi tilbød at afholde mødet i Wien. Wien har de seneste år været et godt sted til dialog og forhandlinger«, sagde Kurz.

Den russiske præsident Vladimir Putin var på et arbejdsbesøg til Østrig 5. juni, hvor han havde møder med både præsident Alexander Van der Bellen og kansler Kurz.

USA's udenrigsminister siger, nationale sikkerhedsrådgiver Boltons besøg i Rusland bør arrangere Trump-Putin-topmøde

23. juni, 2018 – USA's udenrigsminister Mike Pompeo sagde til MSNBC-reporter Hugh Hewitt den 22. juni, at den nationale sikkerhedsrådgiver John Bolton forventes at rejse til Moskva den 24. eller 25. juni, hvor han skal »mødes med sin modpart [Nikolai Patrushev]. Og jeg mener, det er sandsynligt, at præsident Trump vil mødes med sin modpart [den russiske præsident Vladimir Putin] i en ikke så fjern fremtid efter dette møde«, sagde Pompeo.

Pompeo sagde, at da han var CIA-direktør, havde han »en mulighed« for at arbejde med Rusland om fælles interesser, såsom kontraterror, »hvor de to nationer havde fælles interesser. Så vi har altså samtaler med vores russiske modparter, hvor vi forsøger at finde steder, hvor vi har overlappende interesser, men hvor vi beskytter amerikanske interesser dér, hvor vi ikke har«.

Han sagde, at han under samtaler med udenrigsminister Sergei Lavrov, siden han (Pompeo) blev udenrigsminister, havde udtryk »ting, vi er utilfredse med«, inkl. beskyldninger om russisk indblanding i amerikanske valg og russisk »opførsel« i Ukraine og Syrien. Men, sluttede han, »vi vil fortsætte med at arbejde for at sikre, at de kender vores interesser og vores bekymringer, og hvor der så er steder, hvor vi kan finde fælles fodslag, vil vi bestemt forsøge at gøre det«.

Webcast, 21. juni, 2018

Hvis man således havde de europæiske ledere, Xi Jinping og et halvt dusin afrikanske ledere, der talte for kontinentet, og de tilsammen ville erklære et forceret program for infrastrukturudviklingen af Afrika, så ville det ikke alene have troværdighed pga. Xi Jinpings tilstedeværelse, men det ville også sende et signal til alle disse regeringer og til alle unge mennesker om, at der vil være store muligheder for at samarbejde om opbygningen af deres eget land, så de ikke ville føle sig tvunget til at rejse tværs over Sahara og dø af tørst, eller at drukne i Middelhavet, eller blive fanget af Frontex' [EU-grænse-]politi for at blive anbragt i noget, selv paven har karakteriseret som »koncentrationslejre«.

Jeg mener, dette kan gøres. Nu er det ikke særlig sandsynligt, at EU vil gøre dette, i betragtning af den kendsgerning, at de er, hvad de er, men det er en absolut rigtig idé, og skulle dette EU-topmøde forpasse denne mulighed, så kan man få et topmøde, hvornår, det skal være, i juli eller august, eller man kan tage FN's Generalforsamling i september og gøre dette spørgsmål til det eneste punkt på dagsordenen.

Engelsk udskrift

Introduction based on the original scientific discovery made by Lyndon LaRouche during the years 1948–52, refuting the concept of entropy advocated by Norbert Wiener and developing a concept of physical economy based on a study of Heraclitus, Plato, Riemann and Georg Cantor, which he later supplemented through a study of Nicolaus of Cusa. This study led LaRouche to oppose all monetarist theories associated with the British East India Company system of Free trade, globalization and post-industrial society and to embrace the physical economic approach of Gottfried Leibniz (Society and Economy) that later became the American System of Economics of Alexander Hamilton, from his more advanced scientific basis. This class will be given by Will Wertz.

Singapore-modellen må anvendes på globalt plan. LaRouchePAC Internationale Webcast, 22. juni, 2018

... I denne appell opfordrede Helga Zepp-LaRouche til at anvende denne model, Singapore-modellen, til situationen i Europa, hvor hele den såkaldte alliance, den europæiske alliance, den Europæiske Union, nu opløses i splittelse og kaos over det, der lokalt set synes at være en fuldstændig uløselig og umedgørlig flygtningekrise. I stedet anbefaler Helga LaRouche, at EU omgående afholder et topmøde mellem de ledende europæiske lande, afrikanske ledere og den kinesiske præsident Xi Jinping for at indlede en proces for samarbejdende, økonomisk udvikling i Afrika for at løse problemerne med fattigdom og krig, som er roden til masseimmigrationen ind i Europa af afrikanere, der søger at flygte fra denne situation. Denne løsning ville omgående møde troværdighed hos afrikanerne takket være den gode vilje, der nu eksisterer over for Kina på det afrikanske kontinent, pga. de økonomiske udviklingsprojekter, som Kina allerede har igangsat dér i form af det forlængede Bælte & Vej Initiativ.

Lad os nu se på USA. Nøjagtig den samme model kan anvendes på spørgsmålet om migration her i Amerika på den nordlige og sydlige halvkugle. I stedet for at forsøge at adressere symptomerne, kan vi, hvis vi i stedet bruger Singapore-modellen til at adressere roden til denne krise, løse den. Den kan ikke løses på sine egne vilkår, men den kan løses, hvis man introducerer en ny dimension i denne geometri. Hele områder af Mellem- og Sydamerika er blevet ødelagt af disse kapløb-mod-bunden-politikker for billig arbejdskraft, frihandel, uplyndring fra Wall Street-gribbefondes side, og udbredt vold og en tilstand, hvor man ikke kan regere, pga. narkokartellerne og narkobanderne, som disse tilstænde affører, og hvor mange af dem hvidvasker deres narkopenge gennem disse selvsamme Wall Street-banker. Dette er den sump, der må dræneres gennem den omgående genindførsel af Glass-Steagall, som ville lukke disse kriminelle foretagender med pengehvidvask og lyssky penge ned. I stedet må man vedtage Lyndon LaRouches Fire Økonomiske Love for at øge arbejdskraftens produktivitet her i USA og bringe USA ind i dette Nye Paradigme for økonomisk udvikling. Men det ville også udgøre en bro til at bringe hele Bælte & Vej Initiativet ind i de amerikanske lande som helhed. Den Nye Silkevej kunne forlænges gennem et Beringstræde-tunnelprojekt, der forbinder Eurasien med Nordamerika. Hele dette højhastigheds-jernbanenet og andet, kan dernæst forlænges mod syd ind i Mellem- og Sydamerika. Dette bør være emnet for et omgående topmøde mellem præsidenterne Trump og Xi Jinping, sammen med andre statsoverhoveder og ledere af de suveræne nationer i Mellem- og Sydamerika. Dette ville udgøre midlerne til at løse den gærende handelskrig mellem USA og Kina ved at fjerne den såkaldte handelsbalance gennem tredjepartsudviklingsprojekter, som ville være til fordel for begge nationers økonomier. Igen en win-win-løsning. Denne handelskrig er meget farlig. Helga Zepp-LaRouche understregede i dag, at dette er noget, der ikke blot er protektionisme; dette skal på ingen måde fortolkes som en god politik. Dette er faktisk meget farligt i det nuværende strategiske og økonomiske miljø.

THE SINGAPORE MODEL MUST BE APPLIED GLOBALLY

LaRouche PAC International Webcast for Friday, June 22, 2018

MATTHEW OGDEN: Good afternoon! It's June 22, 2018. My name is Matthew Ogden, and you're joining us for our Friday evening broadcast from larouchepac.com.

As you can see, the title of our show today is "The Singapore Model Must Be Applied Globally". As our viewers know, and as we discussed extensively on Monday, Helga Zepp-LaRouche has issued a statement for wide circulation in which she praises

the breakthrough which occurred in Singapore in the summit between President Trump and Chairman Kim Jong-un, as you can see depicted in this picture here [Fig. 1]. She said, "You have to realize that this is an enormous breakthrough. You saw yesterday's adversaries becoming tomorrow's friends," as Donald Trump said many times during his trip to Singapore. This was done through shared and mutually beneficial win-win agreements.

This

is both between the United States and North Korea; but also take note, this is between the Republic of Korea – South Korea – and North Korea, otherwise known as the DPRK. What Helga Zepp-LaRouche did in this statement is that she called for this model to be applied to other adversarial situations in order to unlock similar win-win solutions. Crises which, if you looked at them just in the small, in the regional setting, would seem intractable and insoluble; but as soon as you bring in a new dimension, as was done in the case of the Korean Peninsula, those crises can be unlocked and new solutions are available on the table. That new dimension is emphatically the One Belt, One Road initiative; the New Paradigm that China has championed.

Development truly is the new name for peace.

What Helga Zepp-LaRouche did in this statement is that she called to apply this model, the Singapore model, to the situation in Europe in which the entire so-called alliance, the European alliance, the European Union, is disintegrating into disunity and chaos over what seems like in the small to be a completely insoluble and intractable refugee crisis. Instead, Helga LaRouche recommended that the EU immediately host a summit between the leading European countries, African leaders, and Chinese President Xi Jinping, in order to initiate a process of collaborative economic development in Africa in order to resolve the problems of poverty and warfare which are the root causes of the mass migration into Europe of Africans seeking to escape this situation. Now this solution would be instantly credible among the African nations, due to the good will which now exists towards China on the African continent because of the economic development projects which China has already undertaken there in the form of the extended Belt and Road Initiative.

Now, let's take a look at the United States. That exact same model can be applied to the migration issue here in the Americas in the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. Instead of attempting to address the symptoms, if we instead use the Singapore model to address the root cause of this crisis, we can resolve it. It cannot be resolved within its own terms, but it can be resolved if you introduce a new dimension to this geometry. Whole portions of Central and South America have been destroyed by race-to-the-bottom cheap labor policies, free trade, looting by Wall Street vulture funds; and emphatically widespread violence and ungovernability because of drug cartels and the drug gangs that they spawn, many of whom launder their drug money through these very same Wall Street banks. This is the swamp which must be drained through an immediate reinstitution of Glass-Steagall, which would shut down these criminal enterprises of money laundering and dark money. Instead, adopting Lyndon LaRouche's Four Economic Laws to increase the productivity of labor here in the United States, and bring the United States into this New Paradigm of economic development. But also, it would serve as a bridge to bring the entire Belt and Road Initiative into the Americas as a whole. The New Silk Road could be extended through a Bering Strait tunnel project connecting Eurasia to North America. That entire high-speed rail network and otherwise, can then be extended southward into Central and South America. This should be the subject of an immediate summit between President Trump and President Xi Jinping, along with other heads of state and leaders of the sovereign nations of Central and South America. This would be the means to resolve the brewing trade war between the United States and China, by eliminating the so-called trade imbalance through third-party development projects which would benefit the economies of both nations. Again, a win-win solution. This trade war is very dangerous. Helga Zepp-LaRouche emphasized today that this is something which is not mere protectionism; this is not in any way to be construed as a good policy. In fact, this is very dangerous in the current strategic and economic environment.

But if you take a look at this application of the Singapore model, bring China in on it. The United States and China in collaboration can help develop these countries of Central America, South America, and the Caribbean. China has immense credibility in South America right now as well, just like in Africa. Indeed, we're seeing numerous Latin American nations already in the process of officially aligning themselves with China on the Belt and Road Initiative. For example, you can see in this picture here [Fig. 2], Bolivian President Eva Morales travelled to Beijing this week to meet personally with President

Xi Jinping. They signed several commitments for trade and economic development collaboration, including a commitment for collaboration on the Belt and Road. Morales elevated the status of the bilateral relationship between China and Bolivia to the level of "strategic association"; which he had also just done during a trip which he had just concluded immediately preceding his trip to China, during a state trip to Russia. During which, he and President Putin also had elevated their relations to the status of a strategic association; which Morales also indicating his interest in allying Bolivia with the Eurasian Economic Union as well.

Now in China during this trip, President Morales signed a document which committed Bolivia to collaborating with China to jointly build the Belt and Road Initiative, saying that this will mean economic development and peace throughout the continent and expressing that it is his hope that by working together with China to build the Belt and Road, this would also contribute to expanding cooperation between China and Ibero-America in general.

Which sentiment President Xi seconded, saying that the Belt and Road offers a new platform by which China's relations with Ibero-America as a whole can be strengthened. So, this is very significant. This is just one example of these nations of Central and South America realigning themselves away from this failing trans-Atlantic system and towards this new emerging Eurasian system with both China and also with Russia.

At the same time President Morales was in China, also there was a delegation from the Dominican Republic who were also discussing economic development projects in the Dominican Republic; specifically ports, highways, sanitation projects, urban development. But also discussing broader development and trade cooperation between China and the Caribbean generally.

Were

this collaboration to be generalized across the entire region, and also if the United States were to come onboard as a full participant in this development vision, this – and only this – would address the root cause of the current migration crisis which we are observing. Ending the poverty and ending this cycle of violence which is driving millions of people to flee their homelands. At present, 200 million out of the current 650 million people who live in Ibero-America as a whole and the Caribbean, 200 million live in poverty; which could all be changed through this sort of vision. Remember, China's vision is to eliminate poverty in China in a few short years. Why could this commitment not also be extended to other regions of the world that are in desperate need of that kind of vision? Again, the New Paradigm of the New Silk Road spirit is the key here to unlock this seemingly intractable crisis now plaguing the Western Hemisphere; just as in the case of the Middle East, of Africa as we discussed previously, and as we observed in the up-to-this-point successful solution which has now been committed to in North Korea. Thus, the Singapore model should be applied to the entire world. This breakthrough, what we just observed in North Korea, represents an entirely new era of possibility. And indeed, as President Trump said, the past does not define the future; everything now has changed. But we need to seize this opportunity. As we've discussed, this vision – what we just discussed with the case of Europe, China, and Africa, and also this case of the United States, China, and South America – this vision is by no means impossible. In the wake of his success in North Korea, President Trump now seems committed to continue to kick over the British geopolitical chessboard, and usher in an entirely new paradigm of relations among nations. The premier example of this, of course, is his upcoming summit with Russian

President Vladimir Putin; which by all indications seems to be in the process of being planned for some time during the month of July – possibly coinciding with President Trump's trip to Europe for the NATO heads of state meeting. This prospect has sent the entire British geopolitical establishment into absolute hysteria.

Take for example, this article [Fig. 3] which just appeared in the Times of London under the title, "Trump and Putin Plan Talks during Europe Trip". You can see here the subtitle is, "Alarm in Whitehall ahead of NATO Summit." This is what the article has to say:

"Donald Trump and Vladimir Putin are preparing to meet during the US president's visit to Europe next month in a move that is causing alarm in Whitehall.

"The prospect is adding to fears over Mr. Trump's commitment to NATO and the effect on his trip to Britain....

"The prospect of a meeting between Mr. Trump and Mr. Putin appalls British officials. 'It's unclear if this meeting is after or before NATO and the UK visit. Obviously after would be better for us,' a Whitehall official said. 'It adds another dynamic to an already colorful week.'...

"A senior western diplomatic source said that a Trump-Putin meeting before the NATO summit would cause 'dismay and alarm', adding: 'It would be a highly negative thing to do.'

"NATO is due to discuss an escalation of measures to deter Russian aggression. 'Everyone is perturbed by what is going on and is fearing for the future of the alliance,' a Whitehall source said."

So you can see, absolute hysterics on the part of the British geopolitical establishment. They fear what President Trump could commit to with President Putin, and that indeed, the end is nigh for this entire NATO, anti-Russia, British geopolitical regime in Europe and the United States. Now what we're seeing is a mortal threat to British geopolitics. We're seeing in many instances a new era beginning to emerge. None of these cases should be taken in isolation; but in fact, we should see that the entire global strategic geometry is in fact in the process of a rapid change and a complete realignment of nations is in the process. This is really the fear that the geopolitical establishment has had since the very beginning of President Trump's Presidency; that he could be a loose cannon. He won't be an Obama or a Bush, who were just following their orders.

Instead, he will assert the sovereignty of the United States and he'll pursue an entirely new alignment among the great powers. That's what we're seeing: Collaboration among the United States, Russia, and China. This has been the key in the breakthrough in Korea, and it remains the key to unlocking the other outstanding problems that are facing the world.

In the immediate aftermath of the breakthrough in Singapore, South Korean President Moon Jae-in also made a three-day state visit to Russia, to discuss the outcome of the summit and to discuss the path forward; including how North Korea, South Korea, and Russia will have a future relationship. This trip included a bilateral meeting between himself and Russian President Vladimir Putin. During this trip, Moon addressed the State Duma, making him the very first South Korean head of state to have ever done so. He urged a trilateral alliance between South Korea, North Korea, and Russia; and he urged Russia to “join a northeast Asian economic community” amid an historic paradigm shift on the Korean Peninsula. So, this article [Fig. 4] that you’re now seeing on the screen, titled “Moon Promotes Trilateral Ties in Russia”, reported extensively on this trip. This is what this article had to say:

“President Moon Jae-in urged Russia to join a Northeast Asian economic community amid ‘a historic paradigm shift on the Korean Peninsula’ in a speech to the Russian legislature, the first by a South Korean leader, in Moscow on Thursday.” “When a peace regime on the Korean Peninsula is established, economic cooperation between North and South Korea will become regularized and expand to trilateral cooperation involving Russia,’ Moon said before the State Duma, the Russian legislature’s lower house.

“On Thursday, Moon kicked off a three-day state visit to Russia, the first by a South Korean president since Kim Dae-jung’s trip in 1999.

“In his speech to the Duma, Moon mentioned his first summit with North Korean leader Kim Jong-un in April and the result of that meeting, the Panmunjom Declaration. He also touched on the subsequent North-U.S. summit, the first ever between the leaders of both countries, earlier this month.

“South Korea and Russia are already researching and discussing trilateral cooperation in rail, gas and electricity,

Moon said, adding that cooperation in these areas can create ‘a strong foundation for a Northeast Asia joint economic community.’

“‘A stable peace regime between South and North Korea will enable the advancement of a multilateral peace and security cooperation regime in Northeast Asia,’ Moon said.

“The president called for expanding technological cooperation with Russia, which is leading in basic science. Combined with Korea’s strength in information technology, the two countries can ‘jointly lead the way toward a new era of the fourth industrial revolution.’

“He also emphasized the development of Russia’s Far East region. At the Eastern Economic Forum last year, Moon proposed building ‘nine bridges’ between South Korea and Russia in gas, rail, electricity, shipbuilding, job creation, the Northern Sea Route, seaports, agriculture and fishing.

“Moon also shared his so-called New Northern Policy aimed at creating an economic region that connects Korea to the Russian Far East, Northeast Asia and eventually Europe.

“‘The Korean people desire peace and co-prosperity not only on the Korean Peninsula but all of Northeast Asia,’ Moon said.”

That article also notes that Moon will be attending the South Korea versus Mexico World Cup game during his visit to Russia. But here you can see a second article [Fig. 5] which was published in the {Korea Herald}, which also reports on the trip; including some extensive quotes from President Moon’s speech.

So,

let me just share this quote, which I think really makes clear what his vision is:

"There is a grand historic transition underway on the Korean Peninsula. Now the two Koreas step toward the era of peace and cooperation, leaving behind the times of war and confrontation.

Once a peace regime is established on the Korean Peninsula that is when an era of South-North economic cooperation will take off in earnest. I believe it must be a three-way cooperation that includes Russia. In the case of railways, when those of South and North Korea are connected, and the cross-border railways are linked with Russia's Trans-Siberian Railway, direct shipment of goods from South Korea to Europe will be possible. This will be a great economic gain to North Korea as well as South Korea. And of course, it will be a great help to Russia, too. Also, in the case of Russian gas, Russia's natural gas can be supplied to North Korea through a gas pipeline, and to South Korea and to Japan through a sea underwater pipeline."

So, this is a beautiful vision of what the future of this region can be, and you can see he also included the role of Japan in this. But this kind of connectivity, connecting South Korea through North Korea and then via the Trans-Siberian Railway all the way to Europe; this is the vision which has been what the LaRouche movement has promoted for decades, as the Eurasian Land-Bridge or this New Silk Road. Specifically this vision to be able to travel from the very tip of South Korea all the way to the coast of Europe on the Atlantic. This kind of vision is now a possibility, a very strong possibility because of the peace that was established on the Korean Peninsula through the efforts of President Moon, Chairman Kim, President Trump, and also the role that Russia and China both played in that process. So you can see that this is win-win economic development as the pathway towards peace.

At the same time that President Moon was in Russia, his counterpart, Chairman Kim Jong-un of North Korea was in China; really, literally at exactly the same time. This was Kim Jong-un's third trip to China in just the past few months, and he met directly with President Xi Jinping once again. The {Global Times} has an article [Fig. 6] which is titled "Kim's China Visits Cement Friendly Ties". This article published in the {Global Times} reports extensively on Kim Jong-un's trip to China this past week. Here's what this article had to say: "Kim's visit might also foreshadow Pyongyang's shift to economic revival as North Korea has the need to learn from China's experience on establishing special economic zones and reform and opening up. A group from the Workers' Party of Korea visited China on May 16 to observe the country's economy, agriculture and technology. It shows that North Korea is trying to learn the experiences of economic development from other countries. With its current system, it is very much possible that North Korea learns from China and Singapore.... There is no doubt that North Korea will take economic development as its central task in the future....

"The crux of the regional integration in Northeast Asia is the Korean Peninsula nuclear issue and its peace regime. With China promoting the Belt and Road Initiative, North Korea could be an important country connecting Europe in the west and Japan in the east. Kim's visit not only shows North Korea's friendly relations with China, but also reflects the urgent need to consolidate the hard-earned achievements on the peninsula after the Kim-Trump summit.... [P]eace and stability on the peninsula will promote North Korea's economy and help regional integration in Northeast Asia and even in the Asia-Pacific."

So once again, you can see this emphasis on regional integration. {Xinhua}, another Chinese newspaper, in its report of this meeting between Chairman Kim and President Xi Jinping, listed two of the sites which Chairman Kim visited in the Beijing area during this trip there. Both of them are critical to North Korea's development. One was a Beijing rail traffic control center; and the other was a national agricultural technology innovation park under the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences. So, this is the future of North Korea looks like, emulating what China has been able to accomplish in its great economic miracle, and integrating into this entire region and ultimately into the entire extended Belt and Road Initiative globally. So once again, this is an example of economic development as the path to peace.

Now, Helga LaRouche addressed this extensively during her webcast yesterday, and she emphasized, as we said at the beginning of this broadcast today, that what has occurred at the

Singapore summit has unlocked the possibility of similar strategic miracles that could take place elsewhere globally. And that this Singapore model is exactly what should be applied both in the case of what we're talking about with Europe and Africa, but also as you'll see her elaborate more extensively here, in the case of China, the United States, and Central and South America. So, let me play that clip from Helga LaRouche's broadcast for you now.

HELGA ZEPP-LAROUCHE

: It is sort of obvious, that if President Trump and President Kim Jong-Un are able to complete transform a very dangerous situation around North Korea within a few months, into the total opposite, from the danger of being the trigger point of World War III, to the absolutely hopeful perspective that North Korea can be integrated into the Belt and Road Initiative, with the support of the United States, China and also Russia; by basically promising security guarantees, lifting eventually the sanctions, denuclearize completely, integrating North Korea with the Belt and Road Initiative making it a prosperous country, these were really groundbreaking developments. And as President Trump had said in his press conference, "the past does not determine the future."

That is obviously the proof that you can turn the worst situation around if you have an inspiration, a vision, and the political will to do so....

I think that the meeting between Putin and Trump is obviously the next important item on the strategic agenda. And I think the fact that you have now active preparations for it, the meeting could possibly take place in July, and possibly in Vienna, is also the result of the fact that the Russiagate has fallen apart. And as the Inspector General Horowitz said in the Senate hearing, that this was only on the email scandal around Hillary Clinton, that there was absolute, unprecedented bias on the part of all of these people [involved in the Clinton investigation] and that Trump was completely justified in firing FBI Director Comey. So I think this has somehow freed Trump to move forward on this front.

But let me raise another issue, because there are obviously very bad escalations around this trade war. And tariffs which have been imposed – I mean Trump altogether raised the possibility of putting tariffs on $450 billion in imports from China, and there are now countermeasures going into effect. Tomorrow the EU will put in countermeasures. Already, such countries as Turkey, Canada and Mexico are also putting up tariffs, and there is a big danger of an escalating trade war. All the media, from Russia, China, – the Chinese were very indignant, saying this is completely counterproductive; this is a lose-lose policy. There are many people who voted for Trump – farmers and industrialists, who are now hit by the effects of these tariffs and are in danger of going bankrupt. This is no good.

And what we have proposed, and what I have proposed with the Singapore approach, would be obviously a solution to this problem. Because if the United States and China would engage in joint ventures to develop Central America, Latin America, South America, the trade volume could be increased so significantly, in a multilateral way, that the trade imbalance could be overcome by {increasing} the trade. I would like to get this message out, in particular, to the voters of Trump who are affected by these policies, the farmers, people who have cross-investments in part in China, in part in the United States, who are in danger of going bankrupt, and that a lot of jobs are in danger as well. I would like to ask them to pick up this proposal, the Singapore solution proposal and get it to Trump. Because I think there are some ideologues in the Trump camp who are also anti-China and who are extreme neo-liberal free-traders and they are giving him advice which is really potentially turning his base away from him. So Trump could continue to have his excellent relations with Xi Jinping, add to that an excellent relation to Putin; and then, go in the direction what he has proven he can do already in Singapore with North Korea, he could do the same approach – naturally, the predicates are different, but the approach would be the same: that you turn a bad policy, a lose-lose policy into the opposite, and you go on a win-win cooperation. And the world is urgently in need of such a policy change. I think it can be done! The fact, that the Singapore summit took place, is the proof that you can completely change a policy when it is leading nowhere. The West right now is really faced with this decision in general, to either change policy, or collapse! And that is what is at stake. So I would appeal to the Trump supporters to pick up on this proposal and help us to turn this around.

OGDEN: So, this is a call to action from Helga LaRouche. As she said, history can indeed be changed, but you need the political will to do so. It's our responsibility to do so, to generate that political will. This is going to be done through an educated leadership within the United States' citizenry. To conclude, what I'd like to do is to notify you, if you don't already know, that an 8-week class series on Lyndon LaRouche's method and economics will be beginning starting this weekend, tomorrow, Saturday. This class series is an essential ingredient if you intend to develop the kind of leadership which is necessary to become a leading citizen in this nation right now, and to understand the dynamics which are happening globally.

As

you can see here, this class series, which is on Lyndon LaRouche's economic method, is what you need to know for the future of mankind. The article which was published in this week's edition of {Executive Intelligence Review}, which sort of previews this class series, has an extensive description by those who will be leading the class series about the contents of this.

You can see here on the screen the article which was published on this subject, and the text of the description of this upcoming class series reads as follows:

"Starting June 22, LPAC will offer an eight-part class series on the science of physical economy. Completely untaught in American universities today – despite the work of 19th century American economists Mathew and Henry Carey, Friedrich List, E. Peshine Smith and many others – physical economy is the only competent basis upon which a prosperous future for the United States, or any other country, could be established. Originally created by German scientist Gottfried Leibniz (1646-1716), and advanced by Benjamin Franklin and Alexander Hamilton among others, it was Lyndon LaRouche who achieved breakthroughs in physical economy in the 1950s that allowed him to accurately forecast, in nine different instances, crises in the financial system and the economy, all of which could have been averted.

a result of his documented success, today LaRouche's ideas are widely studied in China, Russia, and other countries.

"Shouldn't these ideas be studied in the policy circles of the United States?

"During and after his successful campaign for President, Donald Trump called for implementing the American System of economics, but he has done little so far to demonstrate a scientific understanding of what that means in practice. Does he have such an understanding? It is unclear. And yet a more important question is, do you know what the American System of economics is? Would you like to know all about real economics, not money? Are you ready to fight to gain that knowledge?..."

"In an eight-week course in LaRouche's economics, you will be challenged to question all of the accepted, but nonetheless false, axiomatic assumptions which have wreaked economic havoc on this nation and much of the rest of the world, increasingly since World War II, and which continue to be an obstacle to the creation of a New Paradigm of Global Peace based on Economic Development. More importantly, you will learn the anti-entropic scientific principles which underlie mankind's limitless future.

Most importantly, by challenging and having the courage to change your own axioms, you will be challenged to make the creation of that New Paradigm the mission of your life.” So, as you can see here, this is the screen, this is the site at LaRouche PAC, the address is discover.LaRouchePAC.com. You can sign up for this class series; you have to register for it, and be a participant in this class series. Again, this begins just this weekend. We are looking forward to the outcome of this class series and to increasing the number of qualified, intellectual leaders of this country, as we continue to watch the world rapidly change.

Thank you very much for joining us here today, and please stay tuned to larouchepac.com.

Den økonomiske løsning på immigrantkrisen. LaRouchePAC-kandidat til midtvejsvalg 2018, Kesha Rogers, Texas, USA

Demokraterne og Republikanerne, der nu er oprørte over børns adskillelse fra deres familier på vores sydlige grænse, var ligeglade med de samme taktikker og massive deportationer under Obama. De er ligeglade med libyerne, der drukner i Middelhavet under deres desperate flugt fra en krig, som Obama-administrationen og Hillary Clinton skabte. Denne reaktion finder sted nu, fordi den er et politisk kalkuleret stunt, der har til formål at mobilisere en folkestemning imod Donald Trump på et tidspunkt, hvor han har skabt fred på Koreahalvøen, og hvor oprøret imod ham nu falder fra hinanden, med den ene afsløring efter den anden af illegal adfærd fra FBI's og Justitsministeriets side, der kommer ud i återen.

Helga Zepp-LaRouche: »En fælles fremtid for menneskeheden« Introduktion til bind II af rapporten, »Den Nye Silkevej bliver til Verdenslandbroen«

20. juni, 2018 – Vi har den glæde at præsentere Helga Zepp-LaRouches introduktion til den kommende Schiller Institut rapport, »Den Nye Silkevej bliver til Verdenslandbroen, bind II: En fælles fremtid for menneskeheden«. Rapporten forventes udgivet i slutningen af denne måned.

»Den Nye Silkevejsånd« har ændret verden til det bedre i en langt mere gennemgribende grad, end den transatlantiske sektor hidtil blot nogenlunde har forstået. Siden den kinesiske præsident Xi Jinping satte den Nye Silkevej på dagsordenen i september 2013 i Kasakhstan, er en hidtil uset optimisme fejet hen over udviklingslandene i særdeleshed; en følelse af, at fattigdom og underudvikling kan overvindes i en nær fremtid, takket være kinesiske investeringer i infrastruktur, industri og landbrug. Geopolitisk orienterede kredse i Vesten har ikke forstået, at Kina gennemfører en ny model for international politik, der takler det underskud, som arven efter kolonialisme og imperialisme har testamenteret frem til i dag: den absolute mangel på udvikling. Og fordi Kina således adresserer milliarder af menneskers eksistentielle behov, vil denne politik sandsynligvis blive den største revolution i menneskehedens historie.

Den Nye Silkevej går fremad; tiden er ved at løbe ud for Europa og USA – skal gå med nu

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 20. juni, 2018 – I dag trak præsident Trump tæppet væk under sine krigsfremmende fjender, der brugte falske billeder og hysteriske beretninger om illegale immigranters børn, der blev »revet fra deres mødres bryst« på grænsen, ved at udstede en ordre om, at familier skal tilbageholdes samlet snarere end at anvende separate faciliteter til børnene. De forrykte historier i medierne 24 timer i døgnet og de beskidte tirader fra Hollywood-»berømtheder« havde til hensigt at aflede opmærksomheden fra Trumps rolle i de historiske begivenheder med at bringe fred til Korea, og fra afsløringen af FBI's forbrydelser i »Få ram på Trump«-kampagnen, orkestreret af britisk efterretning.

De samme personer, der kræver krig mod Syrien, militærkonfrontation mod Rusland og Kina og en legalisering af narko i USA, der således vil fremme narkohandlernes kontrol over nationerne i Mellem- og Sydamerika – de narkohandlere, som immigranterne flygter fra; dette er de samme personer, der nu afspiller bånd med grædende spædbørn og udlægger fotografier af børn i bure – som om de ikke var ligeglade – med det formål at demonisere Trump.

Den skriftlige rapport og Justitsministeriets generalinspektør Michael Horowitz' forklaring for Kongressen mandag og tirsdag bekræftede, selv om det var begrænset til hans resultater af efterforskningen af Hillary Clintons e-mails, at fyringen af den tidligere FBI-direktør James Comey var fuldt ud berettiget – hvilket udsletter Muellers »forhindring af rettens gang«-fidus mod præsidenten – samtidig med, at det ligeledes tydeligt viser den ekstreme partiskhed hos Peter Strzok, der kørte FBI's Russiagate-efterforskning og var udpeget til at være med i Muellers heksejagtteam, bliver en primær faktor i den fortsatte efterforskning af Comeys og Muellers Russiagate-swindel. Andre FBI-folk med en lignende partiskhed blev ligeledes identificeret, men endnu ikke nævnt ved navn.

Disse afsløringer har allerede befriet Trump til endelig at arrangere et fuldkala-topmøde med den russiske præsident Vladimir Putin, som sandsynligvis vil finde sted i juli. Dette skaber rædsel hos briterne, som indser, at Trump og Putin, der handler sammen, næsten med sikkerhed vil finde en måde, hvorpå krigen i Syrien kan afsluttes, og potentelt gøre dette til basis for en bredere løsning til de andre, katastrofale kriser i hele Sydvestasien. De er trods alt alle som én anstiftet af den samme kilde – de britiske imperieherrer, der etablerede

Sykes-Picot, sponsorerede det saudiske kongedømme, etablerede en permanent tilstand af krig mellem jøder og araber i Palæstina og anstiftede de folkemorderiske krige i Irak, Libyen, Syrien og Yemen, hvor de støttede jihadistiske terroristbevægelser imod sekulære regeringer.

Trump er fast besluttet på at afslutte politikken for regimeskifte, blive venner med Rusland og Kina og trække amerikanske styrker ud af Syrien, Sydkorea og andre steder, hvor det amerikanske militær har fungeret som håndlangere for britisk imperiepolitik. Sammen med Putin kan et sådant nyt, strategisk paradigme officielt etableres.

Men den økonomiske ødelæggelse, som doktrinen om »permanent krigsførelse« under Tony Blair, George Bush og Barack Obama har efterladt, må også løses, hvis fred skal opnås. Helga Zepp-LaRouche har krævet, at EU-topmødet ved månedens slutning inviterer Kina og ledere fra afrikanske nationer til at deltage, for at ændre dagsordenen til det presserende nødvendige punkt, at de vestlige nationer tilslutter sig Kina i den Nye Silkevej for at genopbygge de krigshærgede nationer i Sydvestasien og skabe moderne, agro-industrielle nationer i hele Afrika. Dette er den eneste løsning på den flygtningekrise, der er i færd med at rive Europa itu, lyder det fra Helga Zepp-LaRouche.

LaRouchePAC's Kesha Rogers, som stiller op i Texas som uafhængig kandidat til Kongressen, støttede Zepp-LaRouches appell og tilføjede sin egen om at anvende den samme, enkle sandhed på immigrationsproblemet i USA – at afslutte legaliseringen af narkotiske midler og narko og gå sammen med Kina i udviklingen af Mellem- og Sydamerika, både, fordi det er den eneste måde, hvorpå strømmen af mennesker, der flygter fra terror og fattigdom i deres hjemland, kan stoppes, men også, fordi det ganske enkelt er det rigtige og moralske at gøre for menneskehedens fremtid.

Øjeblikket for forandring er inde

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 19. juni, 2018 – To aktuelle begivenheder viser vejen for, hvordan det Nye Silkevejsparadigme er midlet til at overvinde det, der i øjeblikket piskes op i det transatlantiske område som en uundgåelig, uløselig strid: migrantkrisen og handelskrigen.

For Amerikas vedkommende mødtes i dag den bolivianske præsident Evo Morales med præsident Xi Jinping i Beijing, hvor de underskrev forpligtelser til et Bælte & Vej-samarbejde mellem Bolivia og Kina. Morales sagde, at det ville betyde økonomisk udvikling og fred på hele kontinentet. I Kina er der ligeledes en delegation fra den Dominikanske Republik, som konfererer om økonomiske projekter og erhvervsliv i Caribien. Generelt i hele Sydamerika kan denne aktivitet – sammen med en besejring af narkoforbrydere – afslutte den fattigdom og livsfare, der driver millioner af mennesker til at flygte fra deres hjemland. I øjeblikket lever 200 mio. ud af de 650 million-plus mennesker i Latinamerika og Caribien i fattigdom, hvilket alt sammen kan ændres.

For det andet, så arbejder den japanske regering med detaljerne for det første samarbejde nogensinde med Kina om joint ventures i tredjelande, inden for Bælte & Vej-rammen. I denne uge talte premierminister Shinzo Abe om, hvordan Japans »infrastruktureksport« kan udføres på samarbejdsbasis. En særlig arbejdsgruppe arbejder på at udvælge prioriterede projekter. Dette er et arrangement for et kraftcenter.

At fremtvinge et skifte i USA og Europa til dette Nye Silkevejsperspektiv er ikke en utopisk drøm. Forandring er mulig. Øjeblikket er nu. Singapore-tomødet er modellen – reelt, ikke hypotetisk – for at bryde med fortiden og bestemme fremtiden.

Helga Zepp-LaRouche, der i dag gennemgik situationen, understregede, at vi har det største potentiiale for forandring, siden Berlinmurens fald. Et nyt system går frem i Asien, Afrika og begynder i Latinamerika. Vi må knække situationen i det transatlantiske område. Verden har et presserende behov for den nye model for relationer mellem nationer.

Zepp-LaRouche sagde, at der i Europa er en voksende erkendelse af, at det vestlige, neoliberale system totalt er slået fejl. Se engang på, hvad man kommer med som »løsninger« på migrantkrisen, som f.eks. at bygge interneringslejre i Nordafrika, som præsident for Europarådet Donald Tusk siger. Den tyske regering i særdeleshed er fortsat i krise over dette, med kansler Angela Merkel, der har en deadline på to uger til at komme med nogle svar, men hun og andre i eliten er ikke villige til at acceptere, at en ændring i principperne er nødvendig. Dette er en moralsk krise.

I USA i dag udstillede denne samme, umoralske holdning, da Demokrater iscenesatte udbruddet af en handling på vegne af bekymring for migranter, med det formål at forstyrre kongreshøringen, hvor Justitsministeriets generalinspektør forklarer, hvordan det korrupte FBI handlede ulovligt imod præsident Donald Trump. Se LaRouchePAC's nye erklæring fra 19. juni om dette, »Child Abuse Hypocrites! What Evil, Genocidal Twaddle«

(Hyklere om overgreb mod børn! Hvilket ondt, folkemorderisk vrøvl), som, blandt andre koncepter, påpeger, at disse samme

Demokrater støtter svøben med legalisering af narkotiske lægemidler/narkotika, der dræber folk.

Helga Zepp-LaRouches nye, politiske programdokument, der nu cirkuleres på mindst otte sprog, er et stærkt fremstød for det nødvendige, politiske skifte, her og nu: »Der skrives nu historie i Asien! EU-topmødet må følge Singapores eksempel!«

USA's og Ruslands udenrigsministre drøfter de russisk-amerikanske relationer, Syrien og Koreahalvøen

19. juni, 2018 – USA's udenrigsminister Mike Pompeo tog 18. juni initiativ til en telefonsamtale med Ruslands udenrigsminister Sergei Lavrov, iflg. udtalelser fra det Russiske Udenrigsministerium og USA's Udenrigsministerium. Ud over spørgsmålene om Syrien og Nord- og Sydkorea, lød udtalelsen fra USA's Ministerium, »Lavrov og Pompeo drøftede visse aspekter af de bilaterale relationer, inkl. køreplanen for de politiske kontakter mellem Rusland og USA i den nærmeste fremtid«.

Heather Nauert, talsperson for USA's Udenrigsministerium, sagde om samtalen, »Minister Pompeo understregede atter USA's forpligtelse over for våbenhvilearrangementet i det sydvestlige Syrien, som blev godkendt af præsident Trump og præsident Putin for et år siden«. Pompeo sagde, forsatte hun, at »det var afgørende for Rusland og det syriske regime at holde sig til disse arrangementer og sikre, at der ikke forekommer nogen ensidig aktivitet i dette område«, rapporterede TASS.

Det Russiske Udenrigsministeriums udtalelse lød: »Fokus for forhandlingerne lå på en afgørelse i Syrien på baggrund af FN's Sikkerhedsråds resolution 2254, såvel som også konsolideringen af bestræbelserne for at løse problemerne på Koreahalvøen«.

Senere på dagen, da Pompeo, under sin tale for Detroit Economic Club blev spurgt om Singapore-topmødet med Kim Jong-un, rapporterede, at han, både på sine møder i Beijing efter topmødet og under sine diskussioner med Lavrov samme morgen, fandt, at Rusland og Kina »er begejstret over denne mulighed. Det er trods alt deres baghave«, påpegede han. »At fjerne truslen om spredning af atomvåben, truslen om atomvåben i Nordkorea, er noget, de længe har erklæret, de ønskede, men der var ingen motiverende kraft, der kunne drive det. Jeg er sikker på, at vore interesser divergerer på visse områder dér, men den centrale mulighed for fundamentalt at omforme den måde, Nordkorea tænker om sig selv, og dets plads i nationernes fællesskab, på – både Rusland og Kina er fuldt og helt med om bord i vore bestræbelser.«

Store forandringer kan blive ved at komme; Trump og Xi kan løse både handel og immigration

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 18. juni, 2018 – Det netop afsluttede topmøde i Singapore har allerede ændret relationerne mellem nationer i Asien til det bedre og vist præsident Donald Trumps usædvanlige lederskabsevner og bør ændre europæernes og amerikanernes syn på, hvad der er muligt. Den meget reelle mulighed for et snarligt topmøde mellem præsidenterne Trump og Putin, som er absolut afgørende for, at der kan komme en afslutning af 15 års konstante krigskatastrofer i Sydvestasien og Nordafrika, vokser nu frem. Og der kan komme endnu flere »game-changers« – ingen krisesituation er i øjeblikket fastlåst, hvis borgere og ledere vil gå optimistisk frem for fred og gensidig økonomisk udvikling.

Dette er frem for alt en tid, hvor mange burde gå sammen med os i Schiller Instituttet og LaRouche Political Action Committee (i USA), begge organisationer, der i årtier, siden Berlinmurens fald (1989), har været fakkelbærer for et »nyt paradigme« for økonomisk og videnskabeligt fremskridt og fred. Det, der finder sted i Asien gennem den Nye Silkevej og Korea-topmøderne, kan »bryde ud« i Europa og USA, hvis der findes beslutsomme ledere for samarbejde mellem stormagtssamarbejde – som præsident Trump har vist, at han er.

Helga Zepp-LaRouches appell om et EU-topmøde i næste uge, der rent faktisk løser den derværende migrantkrise – gennem, at europæere går sammen med Kina i den økonomiske udvikling af Afrika – cirkuleres nu internationalt på mange sprog; og nu er den samme løsning blevet foreslået i den kinesiske avis Global Times. Zepp-LaRouches appell, »Der skrives nu historie i Asien:

EU-topmødet må følge Singapores eksempel!« bør uddeles vidt og bredt for at blive det, der udløser handling, og handling nu.

USA må undgå en handelskrig med Kina, skadelig importtold på dets landbrugssektor, samt mere – det må undgå atter at blive politisk polariseret over immigration fra Latinamerika. Det er nemt nok for Demokraterne at skandalisere for at rejse midler og håbe på at vinde valg. Og det er nemt nok for Republikanere at udskyde og opføre sig oprørt i offentligheden. De ved begge, at de ikke foreslår nogen løsning, ingen duelig politik.

Men der findes en løsning, der bryder de statiske regler for partipolitik og geopolitik.

Præsidenten kan forhandle en undgåelse af handelskrig ved at aftale med Kinas præsident Xi Jinping, at de to nationer i fællesskab vil udvikle Latinamerika gennem kreditudstedelse til store, nye infrastrukturprojekter og agro-industriel udvikling. Med andre ord, gå med i, og bringe ind, Bælte & Vej. Det er det eneste grundlag for, at masse-immigration til USA, der er udløst af desperation, kan fjernes.

Men der er flere fordele: USA's eksport af højteknologi vil begynde. USA's eksport til Kina vil stige. Det multinationale forsikringsselskab ING har netop udgivet en forudsigelse, der siger, at Bælte & Vej initiativet vil øge den globale handel med 12-15 %; og endnu mere mht. handel mellem lande direkte på den Nye Silkevejs transportkorridorer. Hvem har brug for importtold?

Principperne i Helga Zepp-LaRouches appell til handling er simpelt hen principperne for Singapore-topmødet: Fortiden determinerer ikke fremtiden. »Regler for afgrænsning«, der har holdt kriser fastfrosset i årtier, gælder ikke. Og siden præsident Trump har engageret USA i Asien, hvor der nu skabes historie, er løsninger til kriser overalt mulige.

Det, der nu er brug for, som Helga sagde, er mennesker til at gennemføre disse løsninger.

Hvad er det Nye Paradigme? Afslutning og mobilisering med Helga Zepp- LaRouche

Zepp-LaRouche: Jeg mener, at den Nye Silkevej er ånden, der er kommet ud af lampen og ikke kan stoppes tilbage igen, hvis man simpelt hen tænker på, hvad den Nye Silkevej har gjort for landene, som deltager, frem til dette punkt, med undtagelse af visse andre, økonomiske aftaler, som Kina og et par andre lande havde, så er for det meste Latinamerika, Afrika og de fleste dele af Asien virkelig blevet nægtet den form for udviklingsperspektiv, som Bælte & Vej Initiativet tilbyder. Det er første gang, at landene i udviklingssektoren har udsigt til at overvinde fattigdom og underudvikling i meget hurtigt tempo. Kina langer ikke gamle teknologier ud, gamle industrier, men bringer disse lande med om bord for at deltage i fælles rumprogrammer og andre avancerede, videnskabelige foretagender. Så folk indser, at der er et helt andet perspektiv og en helt anden mulighed for, at ideen om at overvinde fattigdom på planeten meget hurtigt er ved at blive en realitet.

Glem eksperterne; rapporten fra det Amerikanske Justitsministeriums generalinspektør er en bombe

Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 15. juni, 2018 – Den 15. juni offentligjorde USA's Justitsministeriums generalinspektør Michael Horowitz sin 565 sider lange rapport om FBI's og Justitsministeriets efterforskning af Hillary Clintons emails. Præsident Trump og diverse støtter har udtrykt, at det er skandaløst, at Horowitz ikke gik længere med at grille tidligere FBI-direktør James Comey eller med at erklære den åbenlyse, politiske partiskhed, han ellers dokumenterer i Clinton-efterforskningen. Dette er juridiske spørgsmål, og der foreligger et juridisk spørgsmål mht., om Horowitz mildnede sproget i sin rapport pga. pres fra Justitsministeriet. Disse spørgsmål vil blive fuldt og helt udforsket, når generalinspektøren aflægger forklaring i kongreshøringer i næste uge. Rapporten er ikke desto mindre en bombe, selv, når den er skrevet i Justitsministeriets omhyggelige advokatsprog. Hvis vi ikke ligefrem befandt os midt i en opstand imod Trumps præsidentskab, ville rapporten forårsage et omgående punktum for Robert Muellers efterforskning. Et bevis for, at rapporten er en bombe, kan ses i den nyligt fundne forargelse hos kongresmedlem Trey Gowdy, som for blot et par uger siden blev fundet krybende ind under Paul Ryans skørter i takt med, at tingene blev varme omkring briternes indblanding i de amerikanske valg i form af FBI/MI6-informanten Stefan Halper. Gowdy erklærede som respons til generalinspektørens rapport, »denne rapport viser også endegyldigt et alarmerende og destruktivt niveau af animositet fra FBI-topfolks side. Peter Strzoks udprægede partiske tendens mod animositet kaster en dyster atmosfære over denne efterforskning. Partiskheden er så gennemgribende og ondsindet, at den både forurener processen, resultatet og evnen til at have tillid til nogen af delene.«

Hvad betyder det for den enkelte? Har du, personligt, råd til at forpasse denne mulighed?

*Leder fra LaRouchePAC, 17. juni, 2018 – Resultaterne af Trump-Kim-topmødet 13. juni i Singapore har nu gjort de enorme forandringer »officielle«, der har fundet sted i denne verden i et stadigt højere tempo, lige siden afslutningen af det 20. århundrede – forandringer, der i vid udstrækning er blevet katalyseret af Lyndon LaRouches ideer og af hans hustrus, Helgas, rolle som en verdensleder. Kommende fredag, 22. juni, vil Executive Intelligence Review genudgive en afgørende artikel af Lyndon LaRouche fra 18. juli, 1999, med titlen, »Kan du personligt overleve denne konkurs?« På samme deadline, 22. juni, vil William F. Wertz, jr. og Dennis Speed begynde den første af 8 lektioner om LaRouches økonomi, i Manhattan.

Af sådanne grunde bør vi i dag tilføje endnu et spørgsmål til det, som Lyndon LaRouche stillede for næsten 19 år siden i EIR. Dette spørgsmål er, »Har du, personligt, råd til at forpasste denne mulighed?«

Stedet over for de største, verdenshistoriske begivenheder, som dem, vi netop nu konfronteres med, er der en stærk tilbøjelighed til at se på det enkelte menneske – i det mindste det menneske, der ikke i øjeblikket er i avisernes overskrifter – som blot én i en gruppe, det være sig en større eller mindre gruppe. En i »banden«. »En af drengene.« Men det er ikke sandt. Det er ikke menneskets natur.

Sine begrænsninger til trods, så findes sandhedens bundlinje i stedet i det, mange kalder »bibelsk« – den anskuelse, der siger, at jeg kom ind i denne verden nøgen og alene, og jeg vil før eller senere forlade den nøgen og alene, for at stå til regnskab for, hvilken brug jeg har gjort af det, LaRouche har kaldt min »pigrimsfærd til dødeligheden«. Dette er den sandere, menneskelige natur, som Egyptens kunstmalere portrætterede det mange århundreder før Moses blev født.

Dette er gribende skildret af omstændighederne omkring busboykotten i Montgomery, Alabama, i 1955-56, hvor Martin Luther King, jr. for første gang nærmest som ved et tilfælde blev kastet ind i en lederskabsposition, han aldrig havde bedt om, og så pludselig blev tvunget til at kæmpe sig igennem sin egen forpinte selvtillidskrise, før han faktisk kunne begynde at lede.

Som David J. Garrow beretter i sin King-biografi fra 1986, Bearing the Cross, så var ingen af de etablerede, sorte ledere i Montgomery kvalificeret til at lede den nye bevægelse for at boykotte byens busser pga. deres dårlige behandling af de sorte, pga. de personlige kløfter og gruppeklofters forværrede fronter, som splittede disse ledere. Hvis en gruppe tog positionen som præsident for den nye sammenslutning, ville de andre måske ikke støtte boykotten fuldt og helt. De gensidigt fjendtlige grupper valgte den meget unge dr. King, nybegynderen, om ikke af anden grund, så fordi han endnu ikke havde haft tid til at tiltrække personligt nag og nid. Lederen af en af grupperne sagde til en ven, at pastor King, selv om han var ekstremt veluddannet og veltalende, med sine 26 år mere »lignede en dreng end en mand«.

Da pastor King blot var én af de nominerede til præsident, forventede hans nærmeste ven, pastor Ralph Abernathy, at han ville afstå. I stedet svarede han efter en pause, »Jamen, hvis I mener, jeg kan være til nogen tjeneste, vil jeg« og accepterede.

Da han kom hjem den aften, mindre end en time før det massemøde, hvor han skulle holde hovedtalen, overvejede han, hvad han kunne sige til folk på mødet. Da han indså, at han ikke kunne forberede en tale, blev han »grebet af frygt« og »overvældet af en følelse af utilstrækkelighed«, som han senere skrev. Bøn lagde en vis dæmper på hans frygt, men han var stadig usikker på, hvad han skulle sige til de tusinder, der allerede var mødt op udenfor for at høre ham.

Når vi således fejrer dr. King, som LaRouche-bevægelsen netop har gjort endnu engang i Manhattan med Schiller Institutets opførelse af Beethovens Messe i C-dur og afroamerikanske spirituals til ære for dr. King og Robert Kennedy, der begge blev myrdet for 50 år siden, så fejrer vi vores virkelige menneskelige natur. Dette er vores mulighed, og den kommer ikke igen.
